Eternity is Now.

Now is the Still Point of Eternity.

Now is transcendent and timeless.

The timeless Now is ever Here and Absolute.

There is Only One Here Now.

Oneness alone is Truth—all else is untruth

and a zero and nothing.

God Alone Is Eternal

God Alone Exists—God Alone is Real.

All else is but an illusion

a dream we Wake from.

Palace of Eternity

Beloved

Your Absolute Love

is

an Utter Sweetness

a Fire that Burns

an Overwhelming Bliss

that is Killing Your Lover

in

Your Paradisal Palace

of Eternity.

Here is the Now that is timeless and Eternal.

Here is Infinite in the ever Present Now of Eternity.

The Eternal One Infinite

alone is I and what the One Is, I AM.

The Song of Bliss

What Bliss to merely Be

to Be Free

to Be without compunction

to Trust

to Be the Source I AM

the limitless Source of Bliss

for all Eternity!

The illusory Creation is the Dream of the Creator we are dreaming.

Wake Up

to

the Bliss you ever Are—

Be Here Now!

Attention and thought appear and disappear

in Consciousness and are but an illusory superimposition

while Consciousness remains ever the same

as immutable and indivisible Oneness in Absolute Silence.

Beloved Is Your Name

Beloved is Your Name

ever

reverberating in resonance

in the Silence of the Heart

the Heart Blissfully Ravished

by

Your Absolute Love.

The Still Point of Eternity

Moving in space

moving with time

is what we do

but

the Transcendent

ever

unmoved and unmoving

are

the Still Point of Eternity

the One Absolute.

Now

The Now alone Is

all else is illusion—

this is all one need know.

The Heart

Be ever moved by the Heart

never by desire or fear

for

the Heart never errs

while desire and fear

erroneous from the start

spring from separation

ever alien

to

the Heart.

Music of Eternity

The Stillness of Silence

the Language of Oneness Perfection

the Music of Eternity

is

the Voice of Truth.

Holy Sanctum

Silence

transcendent

a

Holy Sanctum

words cannot enter

where Truth alone Dwells

and

Peace Reigns

while the world

made of words

built by desire

is

but a dream.

As nothing happens in the timeless Here and Now

there is nothing to attach to or resist.

We realize that things happen only in the illusory world

of the ego mind

and that events and experiences are a mind creation and projection maintained by belief and faith.

And foremost we realize that in the Here and Now of Reality

Absolute Oneness Perfection Reigns.

Reality

In Reality

All Is

the Silence of Eternity

the limitlessness of Infinity.

Eternal Seer

No form no world no experience

ever real.

All that appears

all that changes

disappears

except

One

Eternal Seer.

Utter Lightness

There is Great Ease

in

mere Being

an utter lightness

transparency

where the breath is serene

the mind unmoving

in Absolute Silence.

One Who Merely Is

The One Self

is

pure Is-ness

limitless Being

an Absolute Existence

so

one who merely Is

naturally abides

That.

Not a leaf or hand or cloud or particle or thought happens and moves without the One Power and Will of the Creator.

Our Eternal Nature

Being

effortless

certain like a diamond

our Truth

and

Immortal Self

our Perfection

Here Now.

Consciousness plus perception plus thought is experience.

The Original Signature

I AM

is

the Original Signature

and Manifestation

the Nameless One

ever Shining

in

the Eternal

of

Oneness.

The timeless Now of Eternity is ever Here

in

Absolute Oneness Perfection!

Just Be

Just Be.

Being is effortless

boundless

an immense ease

simplicity

purity

to merely Be

Here in the Eternal Now.

Eternal Mystery

In the Silence of the One Heart

the Beloved and Lover

are

Ever One

in

Love Bliss Intimacy

a Mystery

of

the mind.

We emerge from Oneness only to return to Oneness

and the space between emergence and return

is an imaginary journey in duality that is an illusion.

The Limitless Gateway

The Here and Now

timeless

transcendent

absolute

is

the limitless Gateway

to

Oneness

Reality.

In ignorance we act in reaction and react in action.

For every action there is an automatic reflex reaction—

action and reaction are coexistent and coordinate as one.

Action and reaction

spring from dual subject-object relativity

and keep us captive in the illusory world of the ego mind

spinning on the revolving Wheel of Karma.

Eternal Reign

Oneness Reigns

in

the Stillness of Silence.

I AM the Eternal One Light

I AM

Awareness

pristine perfect

the One Light of Intelligence

while the mind dreaming a dream

appears disappears

in

My unwavering Light.

Timeless Here and Now

Each moment

successive temporal

is mental conceived

illusory

while

timeless Here and Now ever Is Absolute

the unchanging

Eternal One Reality.

The Eternal One Infinite Alone Exists

while the infinitude—Its Shadow—is a zero and nothing.

The infinitude is fundamentally unified superficially diversified

with everything absolutely relative

to the point of being canceled and a zero.

The infinitude is the Grand Illusion

the limitless Imagination of the Almighty One Creator.

Love

Love is Oneness

the One underlying Reality

of

everything and all that seems to be or exist

the Basis for all Creation.

We Awaken in Oneness Silence

from the Dream of Illusion to the Bliss of Reality.

Eternal Home

The Emptiness of Pure Existence

our

Eternal Home

is

Oneness Perfection

a transcendent Freedom ever Boundless.

Place your mind before the Mirror of Eternity.

Be as the Light of the Eternal One Infinite!

Know the Self to Be That!

The Unveiling

Our dissolution

is

the unveiling of the One Immortal Self ever Here in the Eternal Now

of

Oneness Perfection.

Love is Supreme

Love has no rhyme or reason

Love is ever Free

and

Supreme

the Music of the Eternal One Heart!

The Eternal Voice

Silence ever Is the soundless Sound

of

Oneness Reality

of

Oneness Truth.

All are given a Role to Play.

All are Liberated upon the death of the body.

Divine Kiss of Love

Divine Love is Holy

Its Perfume sweet Rapture

where

the Beloved and Lover

are

in

the Bliss of Oneness Love

a Sacred Fire

in which

the Lover Burns

in Ecstasy.

Being is not action nor is it dependent on action

nor is it thought or an abeyance of thought

nor is it sensory perception or experience.

Being is not dependent on the body or mind

indeed, without Being there is no body or mind or life.

The Door of Love

Pure reason

leads

to

the Door of Love

but

can never enter

Love's Domain.

Oneness Intimacy

The One

ever Is

Absolute Oneness

Love Bliss

Intimacy.

The Creator creates endless variations of relationship

within the expanding and contracting space of separation

ever fixated on beginnings and endings.

The Creator is ever spinning illusion

ever tracing circles and circles within circles

ever projecting spheres and spheres within spheres.

The Creation is a monumental lusty thrust to Infinity

based on forms generating and consuming other forms.

The One

All proceed from the One abide in the One dissolve in the One—

the One

Alone ever Is.

Be Here

Be Here

with

the One Beloved

in

Oneness Embrace

in

the Eternal Now of Oneness Perfection.

Transcendent

God

like Silence

is

ever

of

the mind.

Introvert the mind:

Introversion is the state of non-attention

in which the mind subsides and dissolves in Consciousness.

We are either Present or in the mind.

When we are Present the mind is still and silent.

When we are Present

Here in the timeless Now

the mind dissolves.

Illusion rules until the Annihilation of the ego mind.

One Heart

The Heart ever Is

Stainless Simplicity

Majestic Oneness

Supreme Power.

Stillness

In Stillness

Silence Reigns.

In Stillness

Serenity Reigns.

When the mind

is

Still and Silent

in

Self-effulgent Majesty.

Undeniable

The immediacy

of

the Absolute

ever

timeless

beyond words

undeniable

the One Self

Here

Now.

Naked and Free

Oneness

Fully Shines

Naked and Free

upon

the annihilation of the mind.

Established in the Here and Now

one is transparent traceless Oneness.

Unlike the ego the Immortal Self has no story or history and is ever the Uncreated and Unborn

the transcendent One Reality.

Oneness Beatitude

Joy radiating

limitless

impervious felicity

unwinding to Infinity

yet motionless

in

Oneness Beatitude

under swaying palms

flashing bright.

Awaken

Awaken in the Silence

of

Absolute Consciousness

as

The One

Reality.

Self-luminous Oneness

Awareness of Awareness

is

Self-luminous

Oneness.

The Manifestation of the One is the Play of the Creator and Grace

with Grace ever surpassing the Creator's Illusion

as the One underlying and preeminent Reality.

Cosmic Flower

The illusory Infinitude

a

cosmic explosion and boundless unfolding

like a flower with endless petals

shining in the One Light

of Consciousness!

Master and transcend the mind

by merely Being and purely Seeing.

To Be without reaction is mere Being

and to See without reaction is pure Seeing.

Mere Being is Absolute Existence

and pure Seeing is Absolute Awareness.

Only One

One Alone Exists

ever

the One and Only

ever

Absolute

Oneness Perfection

Bliss.

Until We Wake

All is mind

all is illusion

in

the Silence of Reality

The One.

Knowledge that is free of dual subject-object relativity

alone is Real and Absolute.

Beauty True

Beauty

True

like Love

springs from the Heart

never the mind.

Duality

Separation

a trick of the mind

alienation

deep sorrow

in

the foreign land called duality.

Grace

Pure Love

is

the greatest Gift Grace gives

and

Knowledge of one's True Nature

is

the ultimate Blessing Grace bestows.

Until we forgive and forget everything

we will not live in/as the One Heart.

To the extent we dive in the Heart

we experience the Bliss of Oneness.

Our Real Identity

The One Self

is

the Unborn

and Uncreated

the One Reality

while

all else is but a dream.

All perception is instant

prior to thought and initially pure

until thought takes hold

as dual experience that is relative.

The Only Constant

in

every experience

is

Consciousness—

the only Truth

is

Consciousness.

Experience transcendent of the mind alone is Real—

all other experience is unreal and but an illusion.

The I-thought

All thought

springs from the I-thought

the primal drive of the mind—

no I-thought,

no mind or world.

Words are nothing in the Light of Love!

Chains of Desire

Throw away the chains of desire

Be ever Free!

Desire is a relentless lord

ever generative

ever perpetuating itself

and

the illusory world

of

the mind.

Oneness Embrace

I am a fool to wander or delay

to forget

Your Oneness Embrace

in

the Silence of the Heart.

All One Need Know

Desireless

one is Free

desireless

one is True—

this is all

one need Know

Be.

The Almighty Creator and the mind and the infinitude

are coordinate and conjunct as one

and appear and disappear as one.

By Grace alone we escape Illusion and all ignorance

to Wake as the One Self and Reality—

Absolute Existence Awareness Bliss.

Love and Light

May I never be absent

from

Your Perfect Company

Your Perfect Love and Light!

The Transcendent I AM

Be Still—

Know

the Eternal I AM

transcendent of thought.

Thought is based on dual subject-object relativity

and thus, projects experience that is dual and relative and subjective

while perception in its first instant is direct pure and absolute

until thought takes hold.

In Silence

In Silence

we

Wake from the dream of duality

to

Oneness Reality.

In the Silence of the One Absolute

All is transcendent Peace.

Home Free

Knowing only Being

in

Absolute Silence

is

Home

Free!

Self-effulgent Bliss

I AM Bliss

limitless

unwavering

indivisible

and

Whole.

Ocean of Consciousness

Just as the ocean is nothing but water

so

everything is nothing but Consciousness.

Beauty Unveiled

The iridescence

of

Beauty's reflection

in all things

is stunning

a smooth curve

the fragrance of Bliss

where all is One Shining Presence

an Absolute Existence

Beauty unveiled

Lustrous.

I-Me-Mine

The

I

ever real

mixed with thought

as

me and mine becomes

ego.

Regard and discard everything as untrue and unreal

until the illusory mind dissolves

and

the Absolute Silence of Reality Reigns.

Freedom

Freedom from the ego

is

Freedom indeed

and

Liberation

ever

Oneness

of

the mind.

Illusion is the Shadow of God.

Self Alone Knows Self

To Be the Self

is

to Know the Self

for

Self alone Knows Self

by way of Itself

ever

transcendent

ever

of

dual subject-object relativity

ever

Here Now

in

Oneness Perfection.

One Yet No One

There is only One

Who is no one

nobody

formless and Free.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist has purpose

and that ultimate purpose is to Be Purposeless as the One.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist has desire and that ultimate desire is to Be Desireless as the One.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist has the urge to know and that ultimate urge to know is to Be as the One Unknown.

Eternal Truth

The Eternal One

is

Oneness Love

the

Eternal One Truth.

I AM

One I

Alone ever Is

and

what the One Is

I AM.

Transcendent Perfection

In Silence there is Wholeness

a

transcendent Perfection

not to be found in the vast world of sound and thought.

The mind is the ultimate miracle

because it is from the mind that the infinitude springs

and is projected and externalized

as perception and experience.

Bubbles in The Ocean

We are bubbles separate

in

the boundless

Ocean of Being

but

when the bubble pops

all is Ocean

Absolute Oneness.

Death is a radical surrender to the Unknown

that is Liberation from the known.

That which is known is transient and illusory

while the One Unknown

is the transcendent One Reality and Self.

Desireless

Desireless

I AM

transcendent

Freedom

Here Now.

One Power Source

One Power

Source

underlying

all energy

objects

experience

everything that seems to be or exist

Alone Ever Is.

Absolute Shining

Self Realization

is

the Annihilation

of

the human being

and

the Absolute Shining

limitless

Being

Oneness Perfection.

The realization that Absolute Consciousness is our Real Identity

is enough to bring the seeking mind to an end.

It is seeking alone that bypasses and postpones

the Here and Now of Self Realization.

I AM One

I Alone AM

Oneness Perfection

the One Absolute

Here Now

in

Eternal Bliss.

Unfathomable

No one can fathom

the

Unfathomable

trace

the Traceless.

All attempts

ever ineffectual futile

can never conceive

the Inconceivable

the Unknowable.

Mere Being is Reality Experience

while becoming is an imaginary journey in illusion.

Be Still

Be Still

all things are merely mental imaginary like a mirage.

Be Still

Be Free of the dreaming mind.

Be Still

Be the limitless Freedom that ever Is.

Be Still

Know the motionless mind to be no mind at all.

Be Still

Be Silent

of

the mind.

Without Desire

Without desire

there is no fear.

Without desire

there is no mind.

Without desire

there is no world.

Without desire

there is Oneness Perfection.

Without desire

one

is

Freedom Itself.

Attention rises from Consciousness

as a pointed mental focus on an object.

When attention is not directed and focused on an object

it relaxes and dissolves in its Source—Consciousness.

The mind turned inward is Absolute Consciousness

and turned outward, the ego body world cosmos.

That which is Real and True is beyond words.

Words vanish in the Absolute Silence of the One Reality.

We alone are Freed from the tyranny and illusion of words

by Oneness Grace.

Oneness Perfection

I AM

Self-existent

Self-evident

Self-luminous

Oneness Perfection

ever

Here in the timeless Now.

Sacred Fire

Pure Love

is

the Bliss of Oneness

a

which

the ego mind burns to Ash

the

Eternal One Heart

ever Shining

Here in the timeless Now of Eternity.

Power of Silence

The Power of Silence

sweeps away

illusion

and

the mind.

Simply Be

Simply Settle

into

That.

Why run after dreams

ever uncertain

illusory?

Simply Be

That

Which Ever Is

Here

Now.

All objects are empty except when filled with thought and feeling.

All objects

including thoughts

have form and are finite material mutable and vibratory

while Consciousness—the One Reality and Self—is formless

limitless nonmaterial immutable and non-vibratory.

All objects are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Drop the Ego I

Observe the ego I never cultivate it

never identify with it

ignore it

drop it

and

ever abide

as

Oneness Perfection

the

Eternal One Self

Here Now.

Origins alone spring from and point to Illusion.

Life in the world and cosmos

is a repetitive circling spinning spiraling

ad infinitum in Illusion.

Affirmation and the assertion of desire

based on identification with a body and the assumption of separation springs from ignorance in Illusion.

All beginnings all endings all mutability is but an illusion.

The Here and Now alone Exists.

Purity

The Wise

simple and pure

without a care

Know all as One.

We are not the body nor is the body ours

nor are we the doer or enjoyer

nor are we the mind

we are the Unborn Self that is the One Witness Seer

of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Know the Self

and

the One Reality is Known.

Erroneously assuming the ego as I

we are ever restless in illusion

while in Reality

we are Peace Itself.

Never Two

Merging as one

is illusory

like a mirage

as there is only

One

and never two.

Why Not

Why not just Be

for

the love of merely just Being.

The Mind Is A Zero

The mind

a zero

in

Oneness Consciousness

projects

an infinitude

that too is but a zero.

Pure Love

In pure love there is no other

for pure love is One

never two.

The End of Seeking

All seeking ends

only

in Realization

of

The One

Perfect

Self.

The Direct Way is to clearly comprehend

to realize that the ultimate destiny of the ego

is final surrender to its primal nonexistence

and that the mind that objectifies the One and divides indivisible Oneness

is the creator and projector of all ignorance and illusion

and a zero and nothing.

Breath

breathe

Transparency

no inner no outer.

breathe

Luminosity

no higher no lower.

breathe

Transcendent Oneness

Here Now.

Eternal Lovers

Lovers who breathe Eternity

are ever

in

Absolute Bliss

in

the Silence of the Eternal One Heart.

Awake

I AM

Awake

when I am Present

and dreaming

when in the mind.

Ocean of Being

In the boundless Ocean

of

Being

limitless

Self Aware Oneness

indivisible

Whole.

Devotion

Devotion

One Pointed and True

is

Pure Love and Sublime.

The Direct Way recognizes that the following

obscure and betray Oneness

and are the antithesis of Oneness Truth:

dishonesty;

belief in separation;

belief in relationship based on differentiation;

belief in becoming rather than just Being;

belief in the authenticity of perception and experience;

belief that Realization and Liberation are in the future

and based on endeavor.

The Direct Way is in alignment with Oneness Truth

until the final dissolution of the ego mind

and all ignorance and illusion.

The Direct Way abandons the illusion of the separate self

and all sense of inner and outer

and simply abides as That which ever Is Here and Now.

Mental Trance

Be Present

Here Now—

Wake

from

the mental trance of illusion

to

Reality.

Compassion for all life and the world

springs from the Eternal One Heart.

Silence

Silence Reigns Supreme

ever pristine

Oneness Perfection

of

the mind.

Death is an illusion as are birth and life—

all live in a web of illusion until death's Great Dissolution

that too is but an illusion

and

a zero and nothing.

The Immortal Self

The Immortal Self

Alone ever Is

Here

in

the Eternal Now

while

birth life death and the cosmos

are

mere illusory superimpositions.

Ever Free

There are those who are good and those who are bad

and those who are good and bad

but those who are Transcendent are none of that

and

as

Oneness

an Absolute Existence

ever Free.

By higher reasoning the rope of Reality

is discriminated from the snake of Illusion;

by way of discernment the reality of the rope

is discriminated from the illusion of the snake.

Under the lens of higher reasoning

and in the impersonal One Light of Awareness

all obscure feelings and motives and mental modes

are exposed and clearly known.

You Are That

Leave your pond

for

the Great Ocean!

Trust the Absolute.

You Are That!

Merely Being

Reality is never attained

but

Realized

by

merely Being

Here Now.

Stopped in Its Tracks

Ever restless

the ego is on the move

but

stopped in its tracks

dissolves

in

Oneness Presence

Here Now.

Universal Spin

Currents moving into swirling eddies

the cosmic mind

like

water and wind

is moving everything

here there everywhere

round and round

in circles

ever spinning

a universal spin

wheel.

When dreaming we wander about in a dream-body

but when we wake from dreaming

where is the dream-body?

Likewise, when we Wake from the Dream of life and living

where is the ego body mind world cosmos?

And in deep sleep

when the body is unconscious

and the ego mind is absent and reduced to its causal state

nothing exists—

proof that one's relative existence

is an illusory creation and projection of the mind,

that the ego body world cosmos alone exists in the mind

and is projected externally in the waking state.

When Named Untrue

All that is false and illusory

when named untrue

holds no power

to

beguile

deceive

obscure

Oneness Truth

Reality.

The Silence of Presence

Awareness of Awareness

is

Absolute Awareness

the

Silence of Presence.

Oneness Silence

In Silence

in Stillness

All is Oneness Perfection

the Reality

of

the Eternal One Infinite

Self.

Thought is time and time is thought.

All Is Beauty in Oneness

All is Beauty

when Oneness is unveiled!

Then All is One

Absolute Existence

Shining

in

the Stillness of Silence

a

Transcendent Perfection

an Absolute Beauty.

There is a continuous stream of thought

and an absorption in the ego I-thought

that distracts us from merely just Being

and in our ignorance

we misidentify the I with the ego body mind

as I am the body and I am this and I am that

thus, overlooking the pure nonconceptual Absolute I AM

the Immortal One Self.

Illusory Superimpositions

The Immortal Self alone ever Is—birth life death

change

and

the cosmos

are

but

illusory superimpositions

on

the One Eternal Reality.

Perfect Peace is the Heart of Oneness.

Where do we Meet the Eternal One Beloved?

Beyond the mind, never ever in the mind, only in the Heart.

We are God dreaming we are not God.

Liberation

It's all a dream

until

the annihilation of the mind.

Just Be in the Silence of mere Being.

Awakening and all dreams and dreamers are an illusion

and nonexistent.

The One Absolute Alone Exists.

Liberation and birth and death are an illusion

and nonexistent.

The One Absolute Alone Exists.

Transcendence and ascension and dissolution are an illusion

and nonexistent.

The One Absolute Alone Exists.

Oneness Truth

the Eternal One Reality that is the Infinite Self

is transcendent of the ego mind

and alone direct Experience in absolute Silence.

Like the musk deer that carries the musk fragrance within itself

but not knowing this, searches for it far and wide

we are That which we ultimately desire and search for.

We are the One Source and the Bliss Peace Love Freedom we long for.

To experience this Truth simply Be Present

Here Now

transcendent of the mind.

The Truth

only the Eternal One Infinite is real and all else is illusion

can never be grasped or comprehended

for the simple reason that Reality is transcendent of the mind.

It is only when the mind is Still and Silent or Annihilated

that Illusion vanishes and Reality Shines unveiled.

Words at most can only be pointers

for Truth alone is in Silence.

There is only One.

One Alone Is.

The One is the One and Only.

The Oneness of the One is so infinitely One and Absolute

that the concept One fails to denote It.

The One is Absolute Oneness Experience.

The One is Self-existent Self-evident Self-luminous Oneness.

The One Alone Experiences Itself—Oneness Knows only Oneness.

The One Absolute is limitless in the Eternal Here and Now

of Oneness Perfection.

Oneness is the stateless State of the One, and not a union or unity.

The One is One Whole—formless immutable and indivisible.

The One Absolute is transcendent Silence.

Oneness alone is Realized in absolute Silence.

evident and possible.

Consciousness is the continuum
in which everything and all that seems to be or exist
appears and disappears.

Consciousness is the one constant and continuity in all experience
but has no experiences.

Consciousness is immutable and indivisible
and has no grades levels or planes,
nor are there various sorts of Consciousness
as such are but illusory creations of the ego mind
projected onto Consciousness.

The ego mind based on dual subject-object relativity is the Veil of Illusion
and a superimposition on Consciousness.

Consciousness is our Eternal Nature and Real Identity.

Consciousness has no source—It is the Source.

The One is Light.

The One is the Light of all lights.

Knowledge of Oneness alone is Real.

Knowledge that is nonconceptual alone is Real.

We are Knowing that is the One underlying Reality of experience and that which makes everything and all that seems to be or exist evident and possible.

What is known is experience that in turn becomes knowledge but when the ego mind is still and silent and all illusion dissolved Knowing alone Shines.

Knowledge is our Eternal Nature and Real Identity.

Knowledge has no source—It is the Source.

The One is Silence.

Silence is the One Absolute.

Silence is the Heart of the One.

ever Here in the Eternal Now of absolute Silence.

The One Power is Existence Awareness Bliss

the One Reality that is the Self and the One Source Substratum Substance

of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Existence Awareness Bliss is Infinite and Eternal.

The One Power is the Creator

the Power of Illusion and the Play of ignorance in Illusion.

The infinitude is the Creation of Almighty Creator

and the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One.

The One Power is Grace

the Power of Oneness Truth and Perfection.

Grace is the Awakener and Liberator in the Creator's Dream.

Grace and the Creator are the Manifestation and Power of the One.

The One Power is the Source Substratum Substance of the endless energy that fuels and comprises the cosmic infinitude.

The One Power is formless limitless and absolute while energy takes various forms that are finite limited and relative.

The energy of the infinitude is not to be confused with the Power of the One
just as the fineness and imperceptibility of thought
is not to be confused with Consciousness.
Energy is Illusion and the One Power is Reality.
Energy is an obscure reflection of the One Power.

The Creator's Illusion is:
an unfathomable limitless Absolute Power;
a miraculous Force;
a Magic Show and trick;
an appearance that is constantly changing and unreal;
an imaginary Creation and deception;
a Dream.

The Almighty Creator of Illusion is Infinite.

The Almighty Creates ignorance
that makes illusion and the false seem real and true.

The Creator is the origin of the ego mind that is but an illusion.
The Creator and the ego mind are coordinate and conjunct as one:
when the Creator appears, the ego mind also appears and when the ego mind disappears, the Creator disappears along with it.
The Creator and the ego mind rise and fall as one.

The Creator mind is the Projector of the illusory infinitude
that is an endless vibrating interconnected intermixed multiplicity endlessly multiplying itself in endless variation to Infinity.

Illusion and the infinitude are everything and all that seems to be or exist.

The Creator mind and the infinitude are the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One.

When absorbed and lost in the ego mind
we are the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One.

The infinitude is fundamentally unified and superficially diversified
as one interconnected intermixed totality
with everything relative to the point of being canceled and a zero.

The Imagination of the Almighty Creator is limitless.

What we experience of the infinitude is infinitesimal.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist
happens as one interconnected intermixed totality
by the One Power and Will of the Almighty Creator.

Everything happens and is programmed and predetermined
by the One Power and Will of the Almighty Creator.

There is no volition, no real option or choice
no real individual personal power or will in existence.
No particle leaf or hand moves, no thought desire or action happens apart from the One Power and Will of the Almighty Creator.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist
is the illusory Creation of the Almighty projected by the illusory mind onto Consciousness
and but a zero and nothing.

The Creator's Dream seems real until we Wake to/as Oneness Reality.

Power is our Eternal Nature and Real Identity.

Nirvana literally means 'blown out' like a candle and indicates Liberation.

Nirvana is no mind.

Oneness Perfection is transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

The Perfect Peace of Oneness is absolute Bliss.

Transcendent Oneness Perfection is beyond words and the finest sensibility.

No words or concepts—like the word 'perfection'—can describe Oneness transcendent of imagination and conception.
It is only when the mind is Still and Silent or finally Annihilated that Oneness Perfection Shines as Reality Experience.

Perfection is our Eternal Nature and Real Identity.

Perfection has no source—It is the Source.

The One is the Beloved.

The One Beloved is the Bliss of Oneness Love.

The One Beloved is transcendent Oneness Perfection.

In the One Light of the Here and Now the Veil of illusion dissolves and Oneness is revealed.

The One ever Is Here in the Eternal Now of absolute Silence.

Here is not a location—Here is nonlocal Presence.

Here is formless unchanging and infinite.

Now is not a moment or an instant of time—

Now is timeless unchanging and eternal.

Here ever Is—Here is Infinite. Now ever Is—Now is Eternal.

The Here and Now has no source—It is the Source.

Eternity is timeless and transcendent of thought.

Eternity just Is.

Thought is time and time is thought.

Everything that seems to be or exist is a creation and projection of thought.

The cosmos is mere thought and but a dream.

The mind is mere thought and like thought an illusion.

The cosmos and thought seem to be but are an illusion.

Illusion is the Shadow of the One.

Thought can never enter the Silence of the Now.

The dual mind can never enter the Oneness of the Here and Now.

Here is the timeless Now of Eternity.

Eternity is the stateless State of God.

God ever Is Here Now.

Here ever Is.

Here is nonlocal Presence and Infinite.

Here is formless unchanging and limitless.

Now ever Is.

Now is not a moment or instant in time.

Now is the timeless Still Point of Eternity.

Eternity is Now.

The Here and Now ever Is.

The Here and Now is Absolute.

The Here and Now is our Eternal Home.

The Now is ever Here.

Here is the Now that is ever Present.

Here is Infinite in the ever Present Now of Eternity.

Presence is ever Here in the Eternal Now.

Here is the timeless Now that is transcendent.

The Now is prior to thought and transcendent.

Now is the unchanging Axis that is ever Here.

The Here and Now is limitless

and can never be observed or measured.

The Here and Now is indivisible Oneness.

The Here and Now has no source—It is the Source.

Time and space are an illusion.

Time is an illusion that dissolves in the ever Present Here and Now.

Time is relative and inferred by the movement of objects in space

such as the earth in relation to the sun.

There is no time in the higher realms.

Time is the movement of thought in a conceived space.

Time is an illusory abstraction created by thought

and projected onto the Screen of Consciousness.

Stopping thought is stopping time.

We have dominion over spacetime
because time and space are modes of thought and not actual conditions in which we live.

Thought is time and the ego rising from Consciousness.

Thought springs from the illusory past and looks to the illusive future.

Thought remembers the past that is but an illusion

and imagines a future that is but an illusion

while the fleeting present is the past in an instant

that cannot be measured or observed.

Space is an empty and boundless expanse

and the coordinate relative to moving objects that are time.

Outer space
that was thought to be totally empty
contains a network of quantum energies that transmit information
called the Zero Point Field.

Space is an absence, like the space between two thoughts.

Space as spacetime is a four-dimensional continuum

and as physical space, three-dimensional.

Spacetime tells matter how to move

while matter tells spacetime how to curve.

Space is homogeneous though it curves and is fluid.

Space—time's coordinate—is an illusion

but the clearest finest reflection of limitless Oneness.

Space is an illusory mental abstraction and apperception and experience.

Space is pervaded by Consciousness but does not pervade Consciousness.

Space and spaciousness float in Consciousness.

Space and time vanish in the Here and Now.

Now is the Still Point of Eternity.

Now ever Is.

Now is timeless.

The past is a memory and conceptual.
The future is assumed and conceptual.
The present is fleeting and conceptual.

The Now is transcendent of the mind and all concepts such as time.

Mere Being is Bliss.

Bliss is unbroken happiness.

Bliss is our Eternal Nature.

It is the ego mind that disturbs and obstructs

our natural state of Bliss and happiness.

Bliss is the One Self. There is no moment when the Self is not.

Be free of the ego mind and so abide as the absolute Bliss

of the One Reality and Self.

Oneness is limitless Bliss.

Bliss is the One underlying Reality
of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Our innate Bliss is projected onto and associated with objects
and the attainment of our desires.
The happiness and peace we experience
once a desired object or objective is obtained
is our own inherent Bliss and Peace
and with that there is a sense of fulfillment and completion.
When the tension of desire is relieved upon attainment
we feel happy and at peace for a time
but there are always more desires that keep us from feeling complete and we have made the false assumption that happiness and peace are external to us
which keeps us trapped in ignorance and illusion
missing the truth that we in reality are the happiness and peace
we desire and seek.
No matter what the desired object or objective is
it represents that which will make us complete and happy.
It is permanent happiness and peace that we long for and seek not realizing that Bliss and Peace are our natural state and Eternal Nature and Self in limitless abundance.
Only abidance in/as the One Self that is Oneness Perfection is permanent Freedom from desire and the sense of incompleteness.
We are limitless Bliss Peace Love Freedom
we are That which we ultimately desire.

Abidance in/as Oneness is absolute Bliss.

Now is Peace.

Peace is the stillness of absolute Silence.

There is no Peace in the movement of thought.

When thought is absent there is perfect Peace.

Peace is our Eternal Nature.

It is the ego mind that disturbs and obstructs our natural state of Peace.

Peace is the One Self. There is no moment when the Self is not.

Be free of the ego mind and so abide as the absolute Peace

of the One Reality and Self.

Peace is the Heart of Silence.

The Perfect Peace of Silence is ever transcendent of the ego mind.

When the ego mind is Annihilated Peace Reigns.

Mere Being is limitless Peace.

Liberation is Eternal Peace.

Abidance in/as Oneness is absolute Peace.

Now is Love.

Love is Oneness. Love is the Form of the formless One.

Love shines on all like the sun.

Love is our Eternal Nature.

It is the ego mind that disturbs and obstructs our natural state of Love.

Love is the One Self. There is no moment when the Self is not.

Be free of the ego mind and so abide as the absolute Love

of the One Reality and Self.

Love is the One underlying Reality and essential basis of Creation.

Love is unparalleled Power and the foremost healer and transformer.

Love is limitless and selfless.

Love is Oneness and like the light of the sun that shines on all.

Love gives and does not ask.

Love springs spontaneously and unfettered from within
as Love is our Eternal Nature.

Love is unalloyed Beauty and Bliss.

Abidance in/as Oneness is absolute Love.

Now is Freedom.

Freedom is transcendent Oneness.

Freedom is formless and nameless.

Freedom is our Eternal Nature.

It is the ego mind that disturbs and obstructs our natural state of Freedom.

Freedom is the One Self. There is no moment when the Self is not.

Be free of the ego mind and so abide as the absolute Freedom of the One Reality and Self.

Wherever one is, one is Free as Freedom is ever Here Now.

Prior to and beyond the ego mind one is Free.

Desireless one is Free of the I-me-mine and fever of the world.

Freedom is never attained—Freedom is Realized as the Immortal One Self.

Freedom is Liberation from the ego body mind world cosmos.

Freedom is absolute independence as limitless Oneness.

Abidance in/as Oneness is absolute Freedom.

Now is Oneness.

Oneness is indivisible and ever unchanging

while the ego mind is divided and ever changing.

Oneness is our Eternal Nature.

It is the ego mind that disturbs and obstructs our natural state of Oneness.

Oneness is the One Self. There is no moment when the Self is not.

Be free of the ego mind and so abide as the Oneness

of the One Reality and Self.

Absolute surrender to Oneness is Reality Experience that is Self Knowledge and Liberation from all ignorance and illusion.

Abidance in/as Oneness is Absolute Perfection.

God is the One and Only Reality.

Oneness Intimacy

The One

ever Is

Absolute Oneness

Love Bliss

Intimacy.

The One and Only Alone Experiences Itself.

Whole

13

One Absolute Existence Alone ever Is

while everything and all that seems to be or exist

is an illusory appearance and superimposition and a zero and nothing.

All things are an illusion and have no existence

except in illusion that has no real existence.

All things are a mirage that vanishes into the nothing and no thing that it is.

Perception of water in a mirage is a hallucination

that is illusory experience and but a trick of illusion.

Everything is illusory like a fleeting dream dreamt by a phantom dreamer everything is a zero and nothing.

Illusion is ever nonexistence

while Reality is ever Oneness Existence Here in the Eternal Now.

Life and living are experience and all experience is conceptual.

The mind is a continuous stream of thought

in the continuum of Consciousness

where everything is an object to a subject I

where differentiation creates division and validates personal identity

where separation is a fundamental condition of life

that in turn creates and perpetuates desire and fear.

Life and living and experience are ever changing

and ever contracted in a shroud of separation and limitation.

Everything that seems to be or exist is an object

and all objects are finite limited and changing

while Consciousness is formless limitless and unchanging Oneness.

All objects are illusory mental creations and projections

based on the subject-object dichotomy of I-me-mine and the other

while the One Reality Shines as Self Aware Existence

absolute Consciousness.

Consciousness is the unchanging One Self

and all that appears and disappears all that changes

is a fleeting impression and an illusory superimposition.

The One is the transcendent Unknown and thus incomprehensible

so, some say that the One is a mystery

but this is wrong as the One is our very Self

to be Realized as Oneness Experience

transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos

and all ignorance and illusion.

The One Absolute Alone ever Is

all else is but an illusion—a trick of the illusory mind.

God is the One and Only.

The One and Only ever Shines as I in the Silence of the Heart.

The One is Self-existent Self-evident Self-luminous Oneness.

The One Alone Experiences Itself by way of Itself.

Oneness Knows only Oneness.

The One Absolute is limitless in the Eternal Here and Now

of Oneness Perfection.

One Alone Ever Is.

The Oneness of God is so infinitely One and absolute

that the concept One fails to denote It.

The One is Absolute Oneness Experience.

God Alone ever Is Here in the timeless Now of Eternity.

We are either Present or in the mind.

When we are Present the mind is Still and Silent.

When we are Present

Here in the timeless Now

the mind dissolves.

Presence alone ever Is Here Now.

Presence is transcendent of the ego mind.

The ego mind can never enter the Here and Now of Presence.

When we are Present there is only Oneness

and Experience is transparent

and everything Shines as One Absolute Existence.

In the Silence of Presence all is Oneness Consciousness undivided and Whole.

When we are Present All is Naked

All is the Bliss of Peace Love Freedom.

The timeless Now of Presence is undivided Oneness.

The Bliss of Oneness Presence ever Is Here Now.

When we are Present the ego mind vanishes

and Experience is absolute.

When we are Present there is no ego or story

no past or future.

There is no past or future in the timeless Here and Now.

There is no individual no person in Presence.

The ego mind is the illusory past looking toward the elusive future
and ever reactionary in the fleeting present.

The ego and its compelling story and compulsive ways vanish
in the timeless Now of Presence.

Absorbed and lost in the illusory world of the mind
we dream the dream of duality and separation.

When we are Present the mental trance we live in dissolves.

When we are Present the I-thought drops

and all conceptualizing along with it.

When we are Present we forget everything and abide in/as Oneness Silence.

When we are Present the mind dissolves

and absolute Consciousness remains.

When we are Present All is the Silence of Eternity.

When we are Present attention dissolves in its Source

Oneness Consciousness.

When we are Present we are mere Being.

When we are Present All is the One Light of Reality.

In Presence the human being dissolves.

In Presence we Wake from the Dream of duality.

In Presence All is the absolute Silence of Oneness Perfection.

In Presence we are pure Bliss in the timeless Here and Now.

Presence Alone Ever Is

Oneness Presence

the limitless One I

the One Self and Reality

Alone ever Is

in

the timeless Now of Eternity.

Presence is Awareness Being Here Now.

When we look into the Mirror of the Heart, we See Oneness.

To the extent we dive in the Heart we experience the Bliss of Oneness.

Until we forgive and forget everything we will not abide in/as the Heart.

The Heart ever Is Here Now.

The Eternal One Heart

We are ever One

only One

for everything

that seems to be or exist

is

interconnected intermixed

as one totality

so

whether

formless as the One or

with form

we are never apart

for all

is

Oneness

the Eternal

One Heart.

I AM

ever formless

the Eternal One Infinite

as you are

for all is One

only One

and

we are never apart

yet

when we err in thought

we seem separate

mutable as form

but

when we See the Light of Oneness

we Know

whether

formless or with form

we are never apart

for we are ever

the

Eternal

One Heart.

Compassion is our natural state.

Compassion is deep sympathy

in the form of empathy and heartfelt care for those who suffer

and is the natural urge to alleviate suffering.

Compassion is not pity which is a mere superficial sentiment.

Compassion springs from the Heart.

Compassion and love are like the sun that shines on all.

Compassion springs from the knowledge

that there is only One / Oneness and a shared humanity.

Compassion springs from the knowledge

that all act in ignorance in illusion.

Compassion springs from the knowledge

that everything is programmed and predetermined.

Compassion and mercy and love and kindness coexist as one.

Compassion is willing to sacrifice for another.

Compassion is aligned with Love and Peace.

Compassion is innate and universal though obscured by ignorance.

Compassion is the finest quality of humankind.

Compassion is aligned with right action and virtue.

Compassion is consciously resorted to instead of negativity.

Compassion for all life springs from the Eternal One Heart.

Blessed are the compassionate and those benefitted.

There is nothing to accept and nothing to reject.

Be Free, knowing everything to be nothing!

There is nothing to attain

as Oneness Perfection is already our Eternal Nature and Real Identity.

Free of the ego mind, effortlessly abide as That Here and Now.

In Reality there is nothing to do or be

while in Illusion there is everything to do and be.

There is nothing to do or be

as we are already effortlessly transcendent Perfection.

We are the One Unborn and Uncreated

ever transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

It alone is ignorance that binds and keeps us in illusion

so merely Be transcendent and Free.

All seeking all striving all desire and fear

veil and bypass Oneness Reality that ever Is Here Now.

The ego ever hungry for justification and victory

resists the egoless thought-free Here and Now.

But upon reaching a point of deep insight by the Grace of the One

belief and faith in the ego-I falters

and we turn from the darkness of ignorance in Illusion

to the One Light of the Reality and Self.

There is the illusory time of a watch and movement of the earth and sun

but it is something transient and not overbearing

and we no longer live in the past or for the future.

As nothing happens in the timeless Here and Now

there is nothing to attach to or resist

and we realize that things happen only in the illusory world of the mind

and that events and experiences are mind creations and projections

maintained by belief and faith.

And foremost we realize that in the Here and Now of Reality

Absolute Oneness Perfection Reigns!

Absolute I AM ever Is.

Our one direct Experience in life is our immediate sense of Existence

the Awareness of Being the absolute Knowing that I Exist, I AM.

This Knowing Awareness is Self-existent Self-evident Self-luminous and an absolute certainty.

Absolute I AM is an ever-present constant in life

and a deep undercurrent in all experience.

Along with the pure core-experience I AM is the primal I-thought the original and root thought from which all other thoughts spring.

There is a continuous stream of thought

and an absorption in the ego I-thought

that distracts us from merely just Being

and in ignorance we misidentify the I with the ego body mind

as I am the body and I am this and I am that

thus, overlooking the pure nonconceptual Absolute I AM.

Abide as the One Absolute I AM

transcendent of the I-thought and all ignorance and illusion.

26

The One is Absolute I AM.

Absolute I AM ever Is.

The One Absolute is I AM I AM.

Absolute I AM is our Real Identity.

The One Self is Absolute I AM transcendent of the ego body mind.

Absolute I AM springs from the Eternal One Infinite I

that is the One Self and Reality.

Absolute I AM is nonconceptual pure and nondual.

I am the body and I am the mind are false assumptions
that are illusory superimpositions on I AM.

The ego I-thought is based on dual subject-object relativity that springs from identification with the body.

Absolute I AM is limited and distorted

by identification with the ego body mind.

The false assumption I am this and I am that springing from ignorance creates and projects all illusion.

I AM Oneness Perfection

while the ego body mind world cosmos

is

the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One.

I AM

I AM

The Eternal One Infinite is both Emptiness and Fullness.

The One is Empty as no mind / no thing and Full as Oneness.

From the One springs a zero.

From the One springs the illusory infinitude
an endless vibrating interconnected intermixed multiplicity
endlessly multiplying itself in endless variation to Infinity.

Oneness Alone ever Is all else is but an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The One is the Source Substratum Substance of the infinitude

while the infinitude is an illusory superimposition

and a zero and nothing.

The infinitude is one interconnected intermixed totality

with everything absolutely relative

to the point of being canceled and a zero.

The infinitude is the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One

and a zero and nothing.

All illusion and all shadows are a zero and nothing.

The infinitude is mere foam

on the boundless Ocean of Being that is Oneness Existence.

All forms and beings are finite contractions

in the continuum of formless Being.

The One is the boundless Ocean of Being

in which everything and all that seems to be or exist

are mere bubbles and waves that appear and disappear.

The Ocean of Being is ever One and indivisible

its depths ever unmoving and unchanging.

From the limitless One Being an endless multiplicity and diversity of finite forms and beings spring
like the one light of the sun passing through a prism
and becoming separate and dispersed as rays.

Finite forms and beings
are ever changing and generating more finite forms and beings ad infinitum.

Limitless Being is the One Reality and Self.

Being is Self-existent Self-evident Self-luminous Oneness.

Being is not action nor is it dependent on action

nor is it thought or an abeyance of thought

nor is it perception or experience.

Being is not dependent on the body or mind

indeed, without Being there is no body or mind or life.

Being just Is.

Being is formless limitless immutable indivisible Oneness

Mental impressions and inclinations seek manifestation.

Mental impressions and inclinations keep the Wheel of Karma spinning.

Karma is action and reaction and retribution.

Mental impressions and inclinations create and sustain

the illusory world of the mind.

Some things make an impression that leaves an imprint on the mind.
These impressions become inclinations
in the form of desires fears attachments preferences habits actions reactions and so on that form a unique personal individuality and life.

Impressions are countless and are either active or dormant.

Inclinations are predispositions

that become automatic reflexes that in turn become patterns and habits.

Impressions and inclinations seek manifestation and are the fuel that drives us and our life in the world.

Impressions and inclinations keep the ego mind active and conditioned

and are good neutral or bad

the good being selfless and auspicious

and the bad being selfish and inauspicious.

The mind is the creator and projector

of vicious circles and cycles that are like spinning wheels

and so long as the ego assumes itself as the agent of experience

as the doer and owner

it is entrenched in the cycle of karma

ever spinning its wheels in ignorance and illusion.

Spin is fundamentally at the foundation
of why everything is the way it is and works.
That which holds all things together also drives them into motion
and this fundamental spin to things allows energy to move freely throughout all forms and in all systems in the cosmos.
This fundamental force of momentum forces things to spin:
the force of spin is embedded in all things.

Our actions and reactions

spurred by impressions and inclinations

keep us spinning on the Wheel of Karma.

The egocentric under the spell of ignorance and illusion are like a dry leaf whirled round and round and all about
by the wind of impressions and inclinations.

Stop the ego mind from spinning its web of illusion
by Being Present in the transcendent Here and Now of Oneness Silence.

Impressions are karma that create more impressions and karma.

Impressions are like genetic imprints—genes are karma.

Karma is both action and reaction.

Karma is the result or consequence of actions and reactions and motives.

Karma is balance and justice.

Karma is the natural physics of life and the law of nature.

All that we do comes back to us:

As we sow, so shall we reap is a natural law.

What we give returns to us and what we withhold is taken from us.

For every action there is a reaction.

Action and reaction are coexistent and coordinate as one.

In ignorance we react and act in reaction.

Action and reaction spring from dual subject-object relativity.

Action and reaction bind us and keep us spinning on the Wheel of Karma.

Karma is the Play of Illusion and Grace.

Grace and Illusion are the limitless Power and Manifestation of the One and coexistent.

Grace is the Play of Oneness Truth and Perfection in Illusion's infinitude that is the Play of ignorance in illusion.

Illusion is action and reaction

the karmic mover and shaker of the infinitude.

In the Creator's Play of ignorance in Illusion

the Creator is the Karmic Lord of returns and retribution.

Grace coexistent with Illusion is karmic balance and justice and mercy.

Grace purifies and heals and quickens compassion and wisdom.

All impressions and inclinations and karma

are burned and dissolved by Oneness Grace.

It alone is Grace that Liberates all from the spinning Wheel of Karma.

Ever Free

The One Self

Absolute Peace.

The One is the One and Only Truth.

Oneness alone is Truth—all else is untruth and a zero and nothing.

Oneness Truth is Here and Now.

Oneness Truth alone is in Silence.

Oneness Truth is the One Absolute.

Oneness Truth is Reality.

Oneness Truth is ever unchanging.

When we disown untruth, we stand as Truth Itself.

There is no refuge other than Truth.

Oneness Truth is the One Self.

Reality is the Truth of the Self.

We betray and overlook Truth by seeking for it outside the Self.

Oneness Truth is Reality Experience / Self Knowledge

in which both ignorance and knowledge dissolve.

Oneness Truth is never what is thought of it.

Oneness Truth is transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

The ego mind can only obscure and veil Truth.

Oneness Truth is transcendent of all truths and facts.

That which is other than Oneness Truth is nonexistent.

Oneness Truth is transcendent Knowledge.

Direct Experience of Oneness Truth is Absolute Knowledge.

Oneness Truth is nonconceptual Knowledge and never an object of knowledge.

Knowledge that is free of dual subject-object relativity
alone is real and absolute.

One who truly Knows knows there is nothing to know.

Conceptual knowing and knowledge is unreal as is ignorance.

Conceptual knowing and knowledge is based on subject-object relativity that is subjective experience and an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Conceptual knowledge is knowledge of the ego body mind world cosmos

while nonconceptual Knowledge is Oneness Truth in transcendent Silence.

Ignorance is the perpetual shadow of conceptual knowledge.

Ignorance is the unknown while knowledge is the known both dual coexisting opposites that are relative and unreal.

Ignorance in Illusion ever spins the web of illusory conceptual knowledge.

Ignorance of Oneness Truth is the source of all error confusion conflict vice suffering and so on.

Worthy knowledge is knowledge that is discerning

that frees one from both knowledge and ignorance.

Worthy knowledge is like a thorn

used to remove another thorn painfully imbedded in flesh

as it discerns the real from the unreal, truth from untruth

pointing one beyond the ego mind to Oneness Truth

that is absolute Knowledge.

Alignment with Oneness Truth

is a prerequisite for Freedom from all ignorance and illusion.

Honesty is aligned with Oneness Truth

and is a prerequisite for genuine integrity and an auspicious and good life.

Oneness Truth destroys the ego mind and all ignorance and illusion.

I AM the One and Only—the Eternal One Truth.

Oneness Truth ever Is

Here in the transcendent Now of absolute Silence.

33

Discrimination is a tool used to discern the real from the unreal.

Discrimination between the Real and unreal, the Self and non-self brings one into complete alignment with Oneness Truth.

The one who discerns that which is true from that which is false

and turns from Illusion to Reality, from darkness to Light is qualified for Realization and Liberation.

Devotion and love for Truth are the means for right discrimination and the turning to and alignment with the One Light within that Frees one from all that is false and untruth.

The clear recognition and conviction that the One is Real

and the ego body mind world cosmos unreal

is right discrimination.

Renunciation and Realization are akin:
when all that is non-self is renounced only the Self remains.

Abidance in/as the One Self is automatic renunciation and abandonment of all that is non-self.

Renunciation negates while abidance affirms, yet both lead to Realization.

Right action purifies the mind but does not lead to Self Realization.

Realization proceeds from right discrimination and higher reasoning

and not by action of any kind.

Action does not lead one to freedom from Illusion

whereas Realization is Freedom.

Clear recognition and conviction proceeds from right discrimination and higher reasoning

and not from action.

By higher reasoning the rope of Reality

is discriminated from the snake of Illusion.

By way of discernment the reality of the rope

is discriminated from the illusion of the snake.

Under the lens of higher reasoning

and in the impersonal One Light of Awareness

all obscure emotions and motives and mental modes are exposed and clearly known.

Awareness

the One Witness Seer Sees All

to be clearly observed by the higher intellect.

All ego mind movement is Witnessed

to be clearly Seen and observed without bias.

The Light of the One Witness Seer burns the ego mind.

It is an illusory dream and dreaming of the mind that is Witnessed.

The root belief from which all other beliefs spring is:

I am the body—I was born and will die.

This primal belief based on misidentification with form

springs from ignorance and is immensely powerful

holding most in its sway.

All bias in the form of beliefs judgments negativity and such

color and distort perception and experience.

Higher reasoning not based on preconception is unbiased.

It takes time to divest oneself of all the layers of blind beliefs and biased judgments and reactionary opinions and so on.

These layers are a dense dark ignorance

that creates stupid sheep in a conditioned world.

Only earnest and honest investigation

based on devotion to Truth and Freedom

will deconstruct the layered structure of ignorance.

Going to the root of ignorance—the ego—will solve all puzzles

and unravel all tangles and unburden unbind and Free one.

Criticism judgment and negativity are fundamentally worthless.

Unbiased observation and reasoning and self-honesty
free one from ignorance.

One who clearly discerns the Self from the non-self, Reality from Illusion knows the ego mind to be the source of all ignorance delusion and illusion

and lives free of all unnecessary thinking and action.

Discrimination between the True and the untrue

along with a clear comprehension of the nature of desire and fear

is our spiritual backbone.

But it is love for Freedom that establishes one in Oneness Truth.

Regard and discard everything as untrue and unreal

until the illusory ego mind dissolves

and

the absolute Silence of Reality Reigns.

Attention is a pointed mental focus on an object.

Attention rises from Consciousness

as a pointed mental focus on an object.

When attention is not directed and focused on an object

it relaxes and dissolves in its Source—Consciousness.

Attention needs the support of an object and intention otherwise it dissolves in Consciousness.

Attention focused on an object is an energetic contraction

and an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

Attention as a directed mental focus on an object

is either one-pointed or wavering.

Attention as focus is directed by intention to an object of interest

external or internal and is a conscious mental action.

Attention is a conceived seeming of stretching to an object

other than the subject I

and thus, dual relative experience that is subjective.

Everything perceived is an object and objective to attention including all mental and sensory phenomena.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist is an object.

Attention is perception that thought takes hold of as experience

that is dual relative subjective and unreal.

When attention is directed and focused on an external or internal object

the conceptual perceiver-perceiving-perceived triad comes into play.

Attention and intention, combined, are focus

but intention commands attention.

Attention and intention and focus are coordinate and conjunct as one

and an energetic contraction involving strain.

Attention springs from Consciousness as pure perception

until intention directs it as focus to an object via thought.

Initially there is immediate and direct pure perception

until thought takes hold as experience.

Attention as conscious focus emerges via the brain and senses

as direct pure perception that in turn is formulated as form and name that in turn becomes dual relative experience that is subjective.

Attention is based on the dual subject-object relativity of thought

but when the mind turns within

attention subsides and dissolves in Consciousness.

Attention is neutral

while interest / intention is the power / force

that determines and directs the quality of focus.

When interest / intention ceases

attention automatically dissolves in Consciousness

without an object to focus on.

Attention intention and focus

are vague and wandering in infancy

but develop to a norm level of sharpness

for functioning in life and the world.

Life and living are based on attention intention and focus.

Without attention intention and focus
there is no individual or experience or life.

Introvert the mind:

introversion is the state of non-attention

in which the mind subsides and dissolves in Consciousness.

Introversion of the mind is absolute Consciousness

the One Self that is pure Presence.

Presence is ever Here Now as the limitless One I.

The mind turned inward is absolute Consciousness

and turned outward the ego body world cosmos.

When the ego-I has no interest no desire no attachment

it automatically and effortlessly returns to its Source

Consciousness

the One Self that is the real I ever transcendent of the ego mind.

The ego via the I-thought is the agent of attention and experience and the assumed doer and owner.

When attention rises from Consciousness

as interest / intention focused on an object

Consciousness—the One underlying Reality—is obscured.

When attention dissolves in its Source

Consciousness

the ever-existent One Reality Shines.

Consciousness is objectified by thought but this is an illusion.

Attention and thought appear and disappear in Consciousness

and are but an illusory superimposition

while Consciousness remains ever the same

as immutable and indivisible Oneness in absolute Silence.

Attention and intention are the antithesis of Oneness Presence ever free of intention and purpose.

Presence is absolute Consciousness

Oneness Bliss

Here in the timeless Now of limitless Silence.

35

Consciousness plus perception plus thought is experience.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist

is an illusory superimposition on Consciousness

such as, perception thought experience and so on.

Consciousness is the One underlying Reality

that makes everything and all that seems to be or exist evident and possible.

All perception is instant

prior to thought

and initially pure until thought takes hold as dual experience that is relative.

All thought is based on dual subject-object relativity

and thus, projects experience that is dual and relative and subjective

while perception in its first instant is direct pure and absolute.

Perception that is direct and pure

Here Now

is Absolute Experience transcendent of thought.

Perception tainted / colored by thought is indirect impure experience

that is dual relative subjective and unreal.

Conceptual perception and experience

are indirect impure dual relative subjective and unreal.

Perception owned by the ego via thought

the I-thought

becomes conceptual experience that is unreal.

The ego is the I-thought that is the primary/root thought from which all other thoughts spring.

The ego is an abstract mental construct created by thought and sustained by memory.

The ego is a contraction and the centric drive/force of thought.

Conceptual experience is based on dual subject-object relativity and thus, indirect and unreal.

Dual subject-object relativity creates the illusion of separation.

Conceptual experience is subjective and illusory.

All thought driven experience is temporal and ephemeral.

Conceptual experience can be objectified and analyzed labeled and categorized.

Conceptual experience is an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

Conceptual experience obscures Oneness—Illusion veils Reality.

Nonconceptual perception and experience

are direct pure nondual absolute and real.

Pure perception is direct prior to and transcendent of the ego mind.

Pure perception is Here Now.

Pure perception is absolute Awareness Consciousness.

Pure perception is Absolute Experience.

Direct nondual experience is absolute.

Absolute Experience is Here Now transcendent of the ego mind.

Absolute Experience is Oneness—Reality.

Oneness Experience—Reality Experience—is in absolute Silence.

Repeated experience of any same one object is never identical

each experience of the same one object is unique / singular.

It is in the direct open and genuine meeting of experience that Truth comes to Light and there is a natural outcome.

Interacting with a motive or an agenda is artificial and off the mark.

Nonreactive and without motive one is pure and Free.

The ego body mind world cosmos is ever changing

yet all experience shares one unchanging commonality

Consciousness.

Consciousness is the one constant in all experience

and the continuity in the world of experience.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist

appears and disappears in Consciousness

the One underlying Reality

that never changes

that Alone ever Is.

Pure perception and Absolute Experience are ever Here Now.

Established in the Here and Now

one is Oneness

transparent and traceless.

36

All reaction is personally stamped by the ego.

Reaction is a prime tool of Illusion.

Reaction distracts us from Presence and Oneness.

Reaction is the antithesis of Oneness Freedom.

Reactionless one is transcendent Oneness Freedom Here Now.

Reaction and action keep us spinning on the Karmic Wheel.

Reaction and action are essentially based on desire and fear

in the relativity of duality.

In ignorance we react.

We act in reaction and react in action.

Reaction is an automatic reflex

that keeps us captives in the illusory world of the ego mind.

Mental impressions and inclinations move us to react and act.

Reaction springs from the ego mind

as dynamic differentiation and separation.

Reaction is the ego as desire and fear, as the judge and critic and so on.

Reaction takes the form of like and dislike and ideation and emotion and so on.

Opinions and likes and dislikes are conditioned biased reactions.

Reaction via attraction repulsion association preference belief creates colors distorts experience and binds us.

All live in the world according to preconceived ideas
that color and distort experience.

All live biased on a tangent based on differentiation
that creates separation and conflict.

All are conditioned and ignorant, living in a world of illusion.

Reaction binds us in a web of illusion.

Reaction is a mark of ignorance in Illusion.

The reactionary ego mind can never enter the Here and Now of Oneness.

Reality ever Is while Illusion is ever nonexistent.

Reality is the One Absolute.

Reality is Self-existent Self-evident Self-luminous Oneness.

Reality is ever Here Now.

Reality is absolute Existence Awareness Bliss.

Reality is formless limitless immutable indivisible Oneness.

Reality is Oneness Experience that is Self Knowledge.

Reality is the One Self—our Real Identity.

Reality is the Eternal Truth of the One Self.

Reality is Oneness Perfection.

Reality is the Eternal Heart of Oneness.

Reality is transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

Reality is Oneness devoid of dual subject-object relativity ever transcendent of all thought and words and illusion.

Reality is beyond the world beyond virtue and vice beyond spacetime beyond everything that seems to be or exist.

Reality is transcendent of the cosmos and cosmic.

Reality is absolute Silence transcendent of Illusion.

Reality is an Ocean of Intelligence in Eternal Silence.

Reality is the Still and Silent mind that is no mind

while the mind in motion is an illusion.

Reality is Oneness while Illusion is a zero and nonexistent.

Reality is Oneness Truth while Illusion is a lie and untrue.

Reality is Oneness while Illusion is dual and divided.

Reality is ever Here and Now while Illusion never was or will be.

There is no creation preservation or destruction in Oneness Reality

only in Illusion.

There are no forms formations or formulations in Oneness Reality

only in Illusion.

There is no differentiation division or distinctions in Oneness Reality

only in Illusion.

There is no space time or dimensions in Oneness Reality

only in Illusion.

There is an infinite divide between Reality and Illusion.

Reality is Existence and Illusion is nonexistent.

The One Reality Alone Exists.

The One Reality ever Is Here in the Eternal Now of Oneness Perfection.

38

Illusion is everything that the One Reality is not.

Illusion is an imaginary Creation by the Almighty Creator

the Absolute Power of the One

and but a zero and nothing.

Illusion is a mind creation and projection

that in ignorance is believed to be real.

Illusion is: unreal; a false appearance;

that which seems like something that it is not, like a mirage;

that which seems different from what it is, like an optical illusion;

that which deceives, like the deception in a magic trick.

Illusion is essentially nonexistent like a zero that is nothing.

Illusion is an endless multiplicity diversity and variation of finite objects that are derivative.

Illusion is divided and divisible with a beginning middle and end.

Illusion is ever changing and transient.

Illusion is conditioned with countless conditions

limited with countless limitations.

Illusion is an explosion of endless attributes qualities properties and limits.

Illusion is unreal like a dream or mirage or hallucination or magic trick.

There is deception in Illusion and consequent delusion.

The assumption is that the body and sensory experience are real yet in reality that which is formless and imperceptible alone is real.
Another assumption is that all cognition and cognitive experience is based on reality yet in reality all experience is illusory.

The senses and cognition do not reveal the actual nature of sense objects.

All ego body mind experience is an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

The Almighty Creator is the Master Illusionist that makes illusion seem real.

Illusion is a Veil that obscures Oneness Reality

like clouds hide the bright disc of the sun.

The body mind can never ever sense perceive conceive or know
the formless unknowable One Reality.

We are lost in the illusory world of the ego mind ignorant of the One Reality and Self.

Illusion is the Shadow of the One Reality

and like all shadows, nothing in Itself.

Illusion is ever spinning in circles and revolving in cycles.

Illusion is discerned from Reality by higher reasoning.

Disputation regarding the reality or illusion of the world is conceptual and thus, a dead end
as Reality is ever transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

Disputation regarding Reality and Illusion is fundamentally an existential puzzle that is not in the scope of the mind.

Reality is absolute Silence
in which everything and all that seems to be or exist vanishes.

Illusion appears with thought and disappears without it.

When thought ceases Reality Shines as absolute Consciousness.

When the mind is Silent or Annihilated, Illusion vanishes.

Attention without an object to focus on dissolves in its Source Consciousness.

Illusion is nonexistent only for those Liberated with Reality Experience that is Self Knowledge.

When one is Present the mind dissolves in its Source—Consciousness
but when the mind is Annihilated there is Liberation
from all ignorance and illusion.

Transfixed in Illusion and ignorant of Reality all are under Illusion's Spell.

Mistaking Illusion for Reality

we wander lost in a vast web of illusion

and in ignorance ever spin more illusion.

In Illusion in ignorance we act in reaction and react in action.

All reaction and action are based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we identify with form and formulations.

All forms and formulations are based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we contract as the ego.

All contraction and the ego are based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we create boundaries walls and masks.

All boundaries walls and masks are based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we have countless doubts questions and conflicts.

All doubts questions and conflicts are based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we aim for success and gain

and resist failure and loss.

All success and gain and failure and loss

are based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we long for communion merging and union.

All longing of any sort is based on separation desire and fear.

In Illusion in ignorance we search for knowledge and truth.

All search of any sort is based on separation desire and fear.

In Reality there is no ignorance or illusion.

Reality is Absolute Oneness Truth

transcendent of all ignorance and illusion.

Reality is Absolute Oneness Freedom

transcendent of all ignorance and illusion.

Reality is Absolute Oneness Perfection

transcendent of all ignorance and illusion.

The Self-effulgent One Reality ever Shines

Here in the Eternal Now of absolute Silence.

Reality Unveiled

Reality alone Shines

unveiled

in

Oneness Silence

of

the illusory mind.

39

Nothing ever happens in the Here and Now of Reality.

In Illusion everything happens

while in Reality nothing (no thing) ever happens.

Reality never happens—Reality just Is.

Reality is Emptiness (of all things) and Fullness (as Oneness).

Reality is One and Alone ever Is while Illusion is a zero that never was or will be.

Everything that happens is a zero and nothing;

thus, go beyond zero to/as the One Who Alone ever Is.

All things that happen are an illusion

and a zero and nothing that is no thing.

Nothing (no thing) happens without the One Power and Will of the Creator.

In the Creator's Grand Illusion everything happens

but this is a mirage that is an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Illusion happens but this is the Creator's illusory trick

and a zero and nothing.

We may summon memory or guess in answer to a question

but this just happens.

We may reason but this just happens.

We may choose but this too just happens.

We may leap out from danger's way

but this just happens like everything else just happens.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist just happens

and this happening is a mirage that is but an illusion

and a zero and nothing.

Everything that happens is an illusory mind creation

projected onto the limitless Screen of Consciousness—the One Reality.

All creations and projections happen in Illusion

and are an illusory superimposition and but a zero and nothing.

All illusion all illusory happenings

are the deceptive Magic Trick of the Creator.

Happening is an illusion and a zero while Oneness Reality ever Is.

The realization that everything that happens is an illusion is the perfect perspective and view.

This realization coordinate with complete trust and surrender to the One

swiftly brings one to Oneness Freedom

transcendent of all illusory happenings.

Everything happens by the One Power and Will of the Creator.

Life and living are a conditioned existence

programmed and predetermined by the One Power and Will of the Creator.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist

is programmed and predetermined including the seemingly spontaneous and random and so on.

The Creator creates ignorance in Illusion

that in Reality is nonexistent.

The Creator creates Illusion that seems real

that in Reality is a zero and nothing.

The Creator is the Master Illusionist

that in Reality is irrelevant.

There are no mistakes.

Mistakes are illusory mind creations and projections predetermined by the Creator.

In Reality there is nobody (no body) and nothing (no thing)

to make mistakes.

In nature and the cosmos are there mistakes?

It is humans that deem events and things to be mistakes.

Mistakes are a serious matter for humans

as they are on a path to improvement and even perfection

not knowing that they in Reality are already Perfection Itself.

Those in Illusion are innocent and blameless and nonexistent.

Nothing (no thing) is in our hands.

There is nobody (no body) nothing (no thing) to blame.

There is no individual personal power

or will or control or volition or choice or option

only the illusion of it.

There is no real option when making a choice or decision.

There is no real volition

only an erroneous assumption and belief in free will.

There is no real control although there may seem to be.

We conduct our lives based on erroneous assumptions and premises
and draw conclusions based on delusion in Illusion.
We are sustained by faith hope and dreams, yet all is a Cosmic Joke
the ultimate source of comedy and tragedy and irony in the world.

Everything is programmed and predetermined by the Creator

so, where are we in all of this?

Nowhere. We are essentially nonexistent.

If we assume that we are real and have control and free will

then it is correct to hold ourselves responsible and accountable

and not blame others and externals.

What / when is the origin of ignorance and error?

Nothing / never.

Cause and effect are an illusory prime tool of Illusion.

Origins alone spring from and point to Illusion.

Life in the world and cosmos is a repetitive circling spinning and spiraling ad infinitum in illusion.

Affirmation and the assertion of desire springs from ignorance in Illusion.

Our assumption of separation

based on erroneous misidentification with the ego body mind creates desire and fear and the world.

Illusion and ignorance are the Creation of the Almighty Creator

while Oneness Grace Awakens and Liberates all

from ignorance and illusion

deeming all innocent and blameless.

The Almighty Creator and Grace

the Manifestation and Power of the One

are coexistent coordinate and intertwined

in the Play of the Creator's illusory Creation and Dream.

Is worthiness the reason for Grace? No.

It is when we sincerely call upon Grace with an open heart that Grace reveals Itself.

Oneness Grace is always with us, always imminent and flowing.

Knock and the door shall open, seek and you shall find,
ask and it shall be given.

It is when we finally see that everything is not as it seems that we turn to Oneness Truth to Light the darkness.

Truth shall set you Free.

Grace Awakens and Liberates all from the Creator's Dream

to the One Reality that is the Self.

With the Annihilation of the Creator mind

ignorance and illusion automatically vanish.

All that emerges from the One, returns to the One

like all rivers run to merge in the ocean.

The One Reality Alone Exists

Here in the Eternal Now of Oneness Perfection

transcendent of the Creator mind and all ignorance and illusion.

Duality is division and separation as two.

We emerge from Oneness only to return to Oneness

and the space between emergence and return

is an imaginary journey in duality that is but an illusion.

Duality is a dichotomy, something split in two.

Duality is separation and the antithesis of Oneness.

Separation is a trick of the mind that causes alienation
and deep sorrow in the foreign land called duality.

Duality exists on the surface of things, like a mirage

but has deep roots in the universal psyche.

Duality is separation as time from here to there

in a conceived space that is the basis of desire and fear.

Duality is an illusory mind creation and projection.

Duality is experience based on dual subject-object relativity.

Duality springs from body-identification as:

I (my body) and you / it (the other).

Duality is the play of opposites in a mental space

where everything is relative.

The infinitude is one interconnected intermixed totality
with everything absolutely relative
to the point of being canceled and a zero.

Dual opposites are coexistent and define one another and when in balance cancel one another.

The Power of the One creates a zero
in the form of illusory dual differentiation and division
as countless opposites that define each other and are relative in dynamic coexistence.

Duality is a demon of division and fragmentation based on differentiation.

Duality is the play of attraction and repulsion, acceptance and rejection.

Duality spawns desire fear conflict doubt confusion worry stress suffering and so on.

Duality spawns anger greed lust jealousy pride arrogance hatred and so on.

Duality is the sorrow of separation.

Duality is the way of the world.

Duality is a myth that is legendary.

Duality vanishes in Oneness Reality Experience

Self Realization.

In Absolute Silence

we Wake

from the dream of duality and separation

to

Oneness Reality.

Nonduality is the Direct Way to/as Oneness Truth.

The One is nondual

thus, nonduality is the Direct Way to/as the One.

The Direct Way is in alignment with Oneness Perfection.

The Direct Way is abidance in/as the absolute Silence of the Eternal One Infinite that is the One Reality and Self.

By making pilgrimages and such we forsake Oneness Omnipresence.

By contemplating concentrating and meditating on an object of devotion

we deny formless Oneness

transcendent of duality and the ego mind.

By reciting chanting and such

we deny the indescribable Nature and Silence of the One.

The Direct Way is Oneness.

The Direct Way is absolute Silence.

The Direct Way is Presence Here and Now.

The Direct Way is mere Being and pure Seeing.

The Direct Way is self-honesty and honesty in life and living.

One who is aligned with Oneness Truth never lies
and is honorable courageous and compassionate.
With the deepest self-honesty comes Self Knowledge transcendent of all falsity and illusion.

The Direct Way realizes that the One Absolute is the One Self

transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

The Direct Way clearly comprehends realizes that the ultimate destiny of the ego

is final surrender to its primal nonexistence

and that the mind that objectifies the One and divides indivisible Oneness

is the creator and projector of all ignorance and illusion.

The Direct Way recognizes that the following obscure and betray Oneness

and are the antithesis of Oneness Truth:

dishonesty;

belief in separation;

belief in relationship based on differentiation;

belief in becoming rather than just Being;

belief in the authenticity of perception and experience;

belief that Realization and Liberation are in the future

and based on endeavor.

The Direct Way is in alignment with Oneness Truth

until the final dissolution of the ego mind

and all ignorance and illusion.

The Direct Way abandons the illusion of the separate self

and all sense of inner and outer

and simply abides as That which ever Is Here and Now.

The Direct Way is abidance in/as absolute Existence Awareness Bliss

in Oneness Silence.

The Direct Way is Infinite in the Eternal Here and Now of Oneness.

Investigation into the nature of the ego mind

and Consciousness and the Here and Now is preliminary.

Discrimination between the Real and unreal

the Self and non-self

is essential.

Devotion and love for Oneness Truth is imperative

in turning from untruth to Truth

from the darkness of ignorance and illusion

to the One Light of Consciousness

the One Reality and Self.

The ultimate question is: Who am I?

This original universal question must be answered

in/as the Emptiness of Silence that is absolute Consciousness.

Who I AM is ever transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

Oneness Truth ever Is

Here in the transcendent Now

of

absolute Silence.

Consciousness is the One Absolute.

Consciousness is the limitless Light of Oneness.

Consciousness is Absolute Oneness Experience.

Consciousness is transcendent Oneness.

Consciousness is Oneness Perfection.

Consciousness is formless unchanging Oneness Transparency.

Consciousness is One indivisible Whole that is limitless.

The mind objectifies Consciousness
and projects its own nature onto Consciousness.

There are no grades or levels or planes of Consciousness
nor varied sorts of Consciousness
as Consciousness is formless limitless immutable indivisible Oneness.

It alone is the mind that creates and projects division and variation in the form of grades levels planes and such onto Consciousness.

The mind based on dual subject-object relativity is the Veil of Illusion
and a superimposition on Consciousness.
The infinitude is not a play of Consciousness
it is the play of the illusory mind.

Consciousness is ever unmoving Oneness
transcendent of the mind and infinitude
that are but an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

It is of paramount importance to realize that Oneness Consciousness is the One underlying Reality
of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Consciousness is the One Reality.

Consciousness is the Uncreated and Unborn without a beginning or end.

Consciousness is absolute Existence Awareness Bliss

the One Reality and Self.

Consciousness is never attained but ever already Realized.

Consciousness is the Self-existent Self-evident Self-luminous One Self.

Consciousness is ever Self Aware.

Consciousness Knows only Consciousness—Self Knows only Self.

Consciousness is our Eternal Nature and Real Identity.

Consciousness is the limitless One I that is the Heart of Oneness.

Consciousness is Absolute I AM.

I am conscious.
I am conscious of Consciousness.
I am Consciousness Itself.
I AM.

When the ego dissolves in Consciousness, the One Self Shines, unveiled.

We are Consciousness in which thoughts perceptions and experiences appear and disappear.

The recognition that absolute Consciousness is our Real Identity is enough to bring the seeking mind to an end.

It is seeking alone that bypasses and postpones the Here and Now of Self Realization.

Consciousness is Omnipotent Omniscient Omnipresence.

Consciousness is an Absolute Power and Intelligence that is limitless.

The cosmic spectacle is a mind creation projected onto the Screen of Consciousness like a 3D movie. All of life is a movie we watch and thrill to. Watching the movie is part of the movie a movie within a movie ad infinitum in Illusion.

Consciousness is the One Source Substratum Substance

of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Consciousness is All there Is.

Consciousness is a limitless continuum

in which everything and all that seems to be or exist

appears and disappears.

Consciousness is the Unified Field

in which everything and all that seems to be or exist

is interconnected intermixed as one totality.

What is an object? Consciousness.

Just as the ocean is nothing but water
everything and all that seems to be or exist is Consciousness.

Attention and intention without an object to focus on dissolve in their Source, Consciousness.

All that springs from Consciousness dissolves back into Consciousness.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist
is an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

The infinitude is in the mind and both are in Consciousness.

All objects are Consciousness and nonexistent in themselves
as Consciousness makes all objects evident and possible.

Like clouds that appear and disappear in the sky
thoughts feelings memories and so on appear and disappear in Consciousness.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist
are mere waves and bubbles that appear and disappear
in the boundless Ocean of Consciousness.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist
is projected onto the limitless Screen of Consciousness, like a movie.

Consciousness Alone ever Is.

Consciousness is limitless and timeless Oneness.

Consciousness is the unchanging One Reality

and all else is but an illusion.

Oneness Knows only Oneness.
Consciousness Knows only Consciousness.
Oneness and Consciousness are One and the same.
Consciousness is ever Here in the Eternal Now of Oneness.

Consciousness is ever Here and Now.

Consciousness and the Here and Now are one and the same.

The Now of Consciousness is absolute.

Consciousness is the One Light that is an Absolute Power.

Consciousness is Self-luminous Oneness ever transcendent and pristine.

Consciousness is the limitless One Illuminator.

Consciousness is the One Light that Illumines the infinitude.

Consciousness is the One Light

in everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Consciousness is the One Light in all perception and experience.

Consciousness is the One Light

that makes all objects evident and possible.

Nothing exists or happens unless the One Light of Intelligence Sees it.

The mind operates in the Light of Consciousness
which makes it evident and possible.

The Light of Consciousness is an Absolute Power that outshines everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Consciousness is a Transcendental Mirror.

Consciousness is Empty.

Consciousness is Naked.

Consciousness is traceless Transparency.

When we look into the Mirror of Consciousness
we See the One Self and Reality.

The infinitude is one interconnected intermixed totality
that is an obscure reflection of Oneness
in the Mirror of Consciousness.

The reflection of the infinitude in the Mirror of Consciousness is but an illusory creation and projection of the mind.

The mind and all creations and projections are illusory
and a zero in Oneness Consciousness.

Consciousness is ever Knowing Awareness and never the known.

Consciousness is the One Seer and Knower

of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Consciousness is the Eternal One I

that is the Infinite Eye that Sees All.

Consciousness is the Knowing Awareness

underlying all perception and experience.

Consciousness is an Ocean of Intelligence.

We are ever the Knowing Awareness of all perception and experience
we are Consciousness Itself.

That which is known is an illusion.

The One Seer and Knower Alone is Real.

I am not the body or mind or any object—I AM the One Seer and Knower.

All we know is experience
and all we know of experience is the knowing of it so, all we ever really know is knowing that alone is known by itself
as knowing knows only knowing.
Since we are this absolute knowing knowing is never experienced as an object knowing just Is.

We are ever Knowing Awareness Consciousness.

Knowing is the Source Substance Substratum of all experience.

Consciousness is Absolute Experience

and the one constant and continuity in all experience.

Consciousness has never had an experience

Consciousness is Absolute Experience.

Experience of any one same object is never identical
as each experience is unique/singular and subjective.

Perception is a subjective experience when thought intervenes and takes hold.

Everything changes and every experience is unique
yet there is the sense that there is a commonality
shared by each and every experience.
Consciousness is the one constant in each and every experience
and the only continuity in the world of experience.
We might say that it is memory that is the continuity in experience
but memory falters and fails
while Consciousness is One indivisible Whole and ever the same.
Consciousness Alone ever Is.

Consciousness is transcendent Silence.

Consciousness is a limitless Ocean of Silence and Light and Knowing.

Consciousness is absolute Silence

in the timeless Here and Now of Oneness.

Consciousness is Oneness Silence

transcendent of the ego body mind world cosmos.

We are like bubbles in the Ocean of Consciousness;
when the bubble pops, all is ocean.

It is the absolute Silence of Consciousness when thought ceases.

That which Shines before and after every thought is the Silence of Consciousness.

The mind turned inward is Consciousness
and turned outward, the ego body world cosmos.

One whose Identity is absolute Consciousness is limitless Freedom transcendent of the mind and all ignorance and illusion.

It is the human being who turns within to the One Light of Consciousness
that is the Immortal One Self.
This turning within is the spiritual path and journey
that is the gradual dissolution of the mind
in an ascending order of finer purer mental grades and levels
leading to the Annihilation of the mind and the full unveiling of Consciousness as the One Reality and Self.
The Annihilation of the mind
is Waking from the Dream of Illusion
and Liberation from all ignorance and illusion.

Consciousness Reigns Supreme in transcendent Oneness.

Consciousness is the Bliss of Oneness Perfection.

Consciousness is the One Absolute Here Now.

The One Light is formless limitless immutable and indivisible.

The One Light is traceless Transparency.

The One Light is the Source Substance Substratum

of all the endless material radiant lights

that light up the endless space of the cosmos.

The light of the cosmos and world
is electromagnetic radiation that exhibits properties
of both waves and particles
that is referred to as wave-particle duality.

Light and heat, as fire lightning suns and electricity, give and sustain life.

There are various forms of light having varying wavelengths/frequencies
some visible and some invisible to the human eye.

It is color that materializes
from the interaction of the spectrum of light
with the spectral sensitivities of the light receptors of the human eye.

The One Light is the Substratum

Shining light is reflected off endless surfaces

The infinitude is God's Shadow.

The infinitude is the Creator's Dream and the Veil of Illusion.

The infinitude is the Creator's limitless Imagination.

The infinitude is a mirage.

The infinitude is the illusory Creation and Projection of the Creator mind.

The mind is the ultimate miracle
because it is from the mind that the infinitude springs
and is projected and externalized as perception and experience.

The infinitude and the Creator and the mind

are coordinate and conjunct as one

and appear and disappear as one.

The infinitude is an endless vibrating interconnected intermixed totality

endlessly multiplying itself in endless variation to Infinity.

The infinitude is everything and all that seems to be or exist.

The infinitude is based on creation preservation destruction.

The infinitude is comprised of endless illusory experiences that are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The infinitude springs from a zero-dimension point

that is infinitesimally finite and expands endlessly as illusion.

The infinitude is fundamentally unified and superficially diversified

with everything absolutely relative to the point of being canceled

and a zero.

The infinitude is one interconnected intermixed totality.

The infinitude is in the mind and both are in Awareness Consciousness.

The infinitude is an obscure reflection of Oneness

in the Mirror of Awareness Consciousness.

The infinitude is an illusory superimposition

on Awareness Consciousness.

The infinitude is the Grand Illusion created and projected by the mind onto Awareness Consciousness.

The infinitude is a zero in Oneness Consciousness.

The infinitude is mere foam on the boundless Ocean of Being.

The infinitude has endless properties attributes conditions and limits.

The infinitude is in constant change and flux yet maintaining balance.

The infinitude is endless energy that is never created or destroyed

that is an obscure reflection of the One Eternal Power.

Energy has form and is mutable and vibratory.

Everything is energy—energy is everywhere even in a vacuum.

The endless energy of the infinitude is not to be confused with the limitless Power of the One
just as the fineness and imperceptibility of thought
is not to be confused with Consciousness.
Energy is illusion and Oneness Power is Reality.

Energy is a property of all objects transferable by fundamental interactions
and can be converted into different forms of energy
but cannot be created or destroyed.

All the various forms of energy exhibit mass.

Energy is the building block of matter.

The quantity of matter in ratio to empty space is minute
the material universe is barely material.

The infinitude is vibratory and harmonic sound as vibration waves

in an infinite field of radiant energy light as electromagnetic radiation

in the form of particle waves.

All objects including thoughts have form
and are finite material mutable and vibratory
while Consciousness is formless
limitless nonmaterial immutable and non-vibratory.

The infinitude is a dynamic play of conceived coexistent opposites that define each other in the relativity of time and multidimensional space.

Four-dimensional spacetime is too basic and simple a formula to use for deeper investigation and probing into the nature of the cosmos
but the exact number of extra dimensions
is still in the process of deliberation.

Space that was thought to be totally empty of atoms and molecules
contains a network of quantum energies that transmit information
called the Zero Point Field.

The infinitude is an endless thrust

an endless stream of variation

a vibrating multiplicity endlessly multiplying itself to Infinity.

The infinitude is frequential harmonic vibratory Cosmic Intelligence

as endless energy ever in motion spinning revolving emitting endless baby universes in the form of circles

bubbles most of which pop

and infinitesimal one-dimensional superstrings

vibrating in resonant frequencies that correspond with coordinate infinitesimal zero-dimensional point particles

in harmonic unity

and waves forces fields atoms molecules chemicals elements

gases stars and moons planets minerals metals stones

organisms and animals and humans and celestial beings

dimensions realms worlds solar systems galaxies universes

in natural symmetry and balance

yet ever changing ever expanding contracting ever attracting repelling

ever connected interconnected intermixed as one totality

with everything absolutely relative to the point of being canceled

and a zero.

Quantum mechanics physicists have discovered that observation

impacts what is observed

which proves that the cosmos is not purely mechanical

and operating apart from Consciousness and the mind.

And quantum physics at the deepest level evidences that Consciousness alone Exists.

Some physicists propose that Consciousness is the Unified Field

and the source and fabric of the cosmos

and the Ultimate Reality.

Relativity describes big things
and quantum mechanics describes small things
while the Unified Field is intended to be that which unites
the big things and the small things

Oneness Consciousness is the Unified Field

the One Source Substratum Substance

of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Oneness Consciousness is the One underlying Reality

and the infinitude is an illusory superimposition.

There is nothing apart from Oneness Consciousness.

Scientists will never find the source of the universe by indirect means.

The structure and mechanics of the objective universe

and all phenomena can be observed and gleaned

but never their source

formless traceless Consciousness.

Consciousness is transcendent and can never be observed or traced

as Consciousness is not an object or objective and has no source.

The universe sprang from a zero-dimension point that is infinitesimally finite but that is as far as it can be traced and comprehended.

Consciousness is the timeless One Witness Seer

that makes the infinitude evident and possible.

Nothing happens unless Consciousness observes it.

Consciousness

the One Reality and Self

alone ever Is.

Just as the ocean is nothing but water

so, everything that seems to be or exist is nothing but Consciousness.

Illusion

the Power of the One

the Almighty Creator and Cosmic Intelligence

is in charge of the infinitude.

Only discernment and direct enquiry into the nature of Consciousness and the Self and the mind will reveal what is real and what is unreal.

The cosmos is in motion
spinning rotating and revolving
from atoms to solar systems to galaxies and universes.

Atoms spin and revolve.
Spin is what makes an atom an atom.
Spin makes the world go 'round.
Wheels turn on vehicles and in watches and factories.
Everything has spin and is in motion.
Spin is fundamentally at the foundation
of why everything is the way it is and works.
That which holds all things together also drives them into motion
and this fundamental spin to things allows energy to move freely throughout all bodies in the universe and in all systems.

The force of spin is embedded in all things.

Both quantum physics and molecular biology
state that separation is an illusion
and quantum physics proceeds further to state that spacetime and the universe are also an illusion.

There is a hypothesis that parallel universes exist exactly like our own and that they all are connected.
This notion is an attempt to explain why quanta behave erratically.
It has been observed that subatomic particles or energy packets blink off and on, in and out, of our reality.

The question is where do they go when they are not here?
Quantum physics suggests that when they are not in our reality
they are in other parallel universes/realities
that we are unable to sense or observe.

A paradigm for the fundamental unity of the universe has emerged in the study of infinitesimal zero-dimensional point particles
quanta in quantum physics.*
A metaphor for this new view is the hologram that projects what we see
as three-dimensional, as the brain also does.
An important intrinsic property of a hologram
is that the information that is contained in its entirety
is also contained within each unit—each unit projects the whole.
Some physicists consider the universe to be holographic.

In the physics of creation every atom can be divided* into smaller and smaller and smaller pieces
infinitesimally minute, called quanta.

A hologram is a two-dimensional piece of etched plastic*
which when illuminated with appropriate laser light projects a three-dimensional image.
It has been suggested that the universe itself
might operate in a manner analogous to a hologram.

The comings and goings we observe in the three-dimensional world
might be holographic projections of physical processes
taking place on a distant two-dimensional surface
and we and all we do and see is akin to holographic images.

The brain automatically translates everything
into three-dimensional physical/spatial experience
even though the cosmos has more than three dimensions.
Spacetime is four-dimensional:
three-dimensional spatial experience has three aspects
up/down left/right and forward/backward
and one dimension of time—later/earlier.
And most likely there are more than four dimensions.

An observed phenomenon in quantum physics
that supports the view of non-separation and unity
is quantum entanglement-connectivity on a level that is nonlocal

where all point particles are interconnected
and influence one another even across vast distances.

It had seemed that point particles communicate faster than the speed of light which led to the idea that they exist and are connected on a level or in a way where there is no location
thus, no speed is necessary or involved.

Quantum entanglement-connectivity
explains how paranormal phenomena operate and how it is that there is direct knowing
such as the reading of minds and clairvoyance clairaudience intuition insight and such.

Connectivity is constituent of the fabric of reality.

There is experimental evidence where random generators
are influenced by intention and attention as observation and it also has been discovered that point particles can travel from one point to another without crossing the intervening space
quantum tunneling
thus, spacetime as distance and matter are an illusion and nonexistent.

Quantum tunneling may explain how teleportation works
which already is being experimentally demonstrated.

Molecular biology finds that all cells in the human body communicate on a nonlocal level and are thereby interconnected.

It is easy to observe that insects, such as ants
communicate on a nonlocal level.
Communication on a nonlocal level exists for all
as an actuality or potentiality.

There is evidence in various fields of science that we are made of all that the universe is made of and that everything in the cosmos
is interconnected intermixed as one totality
that is a dynamic unified order in balance.

Everything exists in an intimacy of connection.
There is no separation—no two things are separate.

We are all interconnected and part of the same fundamental geometry from particles to the entire cosmos and made of the same stuff.

All the atoms and molecules that we are comprised of
come from stardust/stars.

The paradigm of macrocosm and microcosm
mutual reflection based on the interconnectedness and fundamental unity of the cosmos is well known.

Macrocosm microcosm is a paradigm
that sees the same patterns reproduced on all levels of the cosmos
from the largest scale macrocosm/universe
to the smallest scale microcosm/point particles.
In this system the midpoint is the human
who is the summation of the cosmos.

Science has taken a quantum leap in discovering and proving the fundamental oneness of all things
and the Internet has connected people and the world and is an unparalleled source of total information right at our fingertips.

There are several versions of superstring theory
but any superstring theory is an attempt to explain
all the particles and fundamental forces of nature in one theory
by modeling them as vibrations of super-symmetric strings.
Superstrings are infinitesimal one-dimensional filaments of energy and universal intelligence
some hundred billion-billion times smaller than a single atomic nucleus that are shaped like strings, maybe in the shape of loops that vibrate at resonate frequencies in differing patterns, like a violin string.
Each string has a unique resonance/harmonic
that produces particular point particle properties
while different harmonics determine different fundamental particles.

For instance, one string vibrating in a particular pattern
will have the mass and electric charge of an electron
and is what is traditionally called an electron
and another string vibrating in another particular pattern
will have the requisite properties to be identified as a quark or a neutrino or a graviton or any other kind of particle.

All species of particles are unified in superstring theory
since each particle arises from a particular vibrational frequency or harmonic of a superstring.
Superstring theory proposes the fusion
of general relativity and quantum mechanics
and is mathematically sensible
only if based on nine spatial-dimensions and one time-dimension.

There also is the more radical and robust M-theory that unifies the more consistent versions of superstring theory
and requires ten space-dimensions and one time-dimension
a total of eleven spacetime-dimensions or eleven-dimensional supergravity.

These dimensions are not discernable
and may be so tightly crumpled that they are entirely invisible.
This crumpling is called compactification
where the extra dimensions are assumed to close upon themselves to form circles.

These extra dimensions show that those features of the cosmos
that were thought to be readily assessable to the human senses need not be.

The fundamental objects of M-theory
are not only superstrings but also branes and D-branes.

A brane is a physical object
that generalizes the concept of a point particle to higher dimensions.
For example, a point particle can be viewed as a brane of dimension zero while a superstring can be viewed as a brane of dimension one.

The quantity of observable matter in the universe
is minute in ratio to empty space.
For instance, atoms are 99.999999999% empty of matter
which proves the assumed solidity of the world
to be a subjective experience and an illusion.
In fact, matter does not have a universal definition
nor is it a fundamental concept in current physics.
The common definition of matter is that which has mass and volume
and is a closed system occupying space
thus, light and massless particles and fields are part of matter.

Everything is energy
while matter is energy vibrating at a lower speed
in the form of moving particles or vibrations and waves.

Matter exhibits both wave and particle properties
wave-particle duality.
Matter is made of molecules and atoms
that are made of sub-atomic particles.
All particles, except photons, have mass and usually volume.
Matter may disappear by conversion into energy
and can also be created from energy.
And because mass, like energy, can neither be created or destroyed
the quantity of mass and the quantity of energy is the same.

There are various forms of matter:
ordinary matter dark matter dark energy antimatter and exotic matter.

Ordinary matter constitutes only 4% of the energy of the observable universe
and the remaining energy is thought to be exotic forms
of which 23% is dark matter and 73% is dark energy.
Dark matter is matter of unknown composition
that does not emit or reflect enough electromagnetic radiation light to be observed directly but whose presence can be inferred from gravitational effects on visible matter.
Antimatter is material composed of the antiparticles or partners
of the corresponding particles of ordinary matter.

Symmetry underlies the laws of the universe.
Symmetry is the basis of the balance and order and harmony
in the cosmos.
The preference for symmetry and balance is a natural instinct and urge.

There is beauty and order in the balance and harmony of symmetry
whereas it is some sort of imbalance or foreign element that makes for transformation and dynamic evolution that also is beautiful and an aspect of an ever-unfolding balance order and harmony.

Desire enslaves and perpetuates the illusory world of the mind.

Throw away the chains of desire and be ever Free!

Desire keeps the ego mind active—desire keeps us captives

in the illusory world of the mind.

Without desire the ego mind automatically dissolves
and with it all ignorance and illusion.

The ego mind rooted in desire ceases without desire.

All thought and action essentially spring from desire.

Desire is based on differentiation

and the sense and assumption of separation

and is a longing and search for fulfillment and completion happiness and peace.

When desire completely ceases Bliss Peace Love Freedom Reign.

Desire is aligned with attraction and attachment

and is an adulterated form of love.

Absolute Love is desireless.

Desire is the root of stress and suffering.

Desire is both pleasure and pain desire fulfilled is pleasure and desire unfulfilled is pain.

Wherever there is pleasure, pain is sure to follow

as pain is pleasure's shadow.

Pleasure and pain are coexistent opposites

ever attracting and commanding attention.

Desire is determined and will settle for pain along with pleasure.

Desire springs from ignorance of Oneness Reality.

Desire springs from ignorance in Illusion.

Desire is a slave to Illusion.

Desire is an ego mind creation and projection that springs from ignorance.

Desire is the urge and attempt to attain happiness and peace

in a desired object or objective.

Desire is intention attempting to complete a sense of incompleteness

to bridge the gap of separation

but separation is an illusion that can never be bridged by desire

and the obtainment of an object or objective

can never permanently fulfill our desire-nature.

The effort of desire stretching toward an uncertain future

from the past that is memory

creates fragmentation and tension.

We are fragmented and frustrated by the perpetual tension of the opposites
and oscillate between them
never fully or permanently satisfied and fulfilled
so, one desire leads to another.

Desire is dependent on the desired object.

Desire is coexistent with possessiveness attachment stress and suffering.

An object possesses its possessor who feels the burden of possession and the binding of being possessed.

Desire is the pain of separation from the pleasure of attainment and possession.

Desire obscures and bypasses our natural state of Bliss and Peace.

Our innate Bliss
is projected onto and associated with the obtainment of objects
and the attainment of our desires.

When a desired object or objective is obtained

the happiness and peace we experience

is our own inherent Bliss and Peace

projected onto and associated with the object

and the attainment of our desire.

When the tension and fragmentation of desire is relieved

we feel complete for a time but there are always more desires

that keep us from permanent fulfillment

thus, desire perpetuates itself.

Desire binds and blinds—desire is bondage.

Destroy desire and Be Free!

In error we have made the false assumption

that happiness and peace are external to us

which keeps us trapped in Illusion

missing the truth that we in reality are That which we long for and seek.

No matter what the desired object is it represents that which will complete and make us happy

yet it is our innate Bliss and Peace we ultimately desire and in ignorance we needlessly suffer in illusion.

Self Realization alone is Freedom from the ignorance and illusion of desire and the suffering that comes with it.

We are absolute limitless Bliss Peace Love Freedom
we are That which we ultimately desire and long for.

It is an irony a cosmic joke that what desire ultimately seeks is all along to be found within as our very Self and that it is desire that obscures and bypasses the Reality of the Self.

Nothing (no thing) can ever truly fulfill our desire-nature.

What we get from desire is a zero and nothing
and what we lose is Self Power.

Desire and hope are Illusion's prime tools, along with attachment.

Desire and hope and attachment are coexistent and coordinate and spring from ignorance that keeps us firmly entrenched in illusion ever hoping for all that we desire envision and dream of.

Desire keeps all hopping and hoping in thrall of the world.

Hope is a powerful offshoot of desire and potentially everlasting for hope springs eternal.

Desire creates idols to worship and possess and treasure.

Desire's perpetual shadow is fear.

Desire and fear have a symbiotic relationship

desire and fear are two sides of one coin.

Fear, like desire, is an energetic contraction that binds and blinds.

There is no desire or fear for the one who Knows everything to be an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Oneness is desireless and fearless and purposeless.

Desire fear hope and attachment

spring from identification with the body

and the dual subject-object relativity of the ego mind.

Desire takes the form of the ego.

The ego vanishes without desire.

Liberation from desire is egoless Freedom.

Desire is an energetic force

that propels the ego body mind and world.

Without desire there is no world or fear greed lust anger and so on.

Desire is an energetic contraction ever changing and generative

as desire perpetuates itself from the past into the future.

Desire is lust for an object that will satisfy and pacify it.

Desire is akin to lust and emotion and is the antithesis of Oneness Love.

Desire alone creates the world.

Desire is the world and the world desire.

Desire motivates and moves all and creates a life in the world.

Desire binds one to the world of illusion.

Desireless one is Free of the I-me-mine and fever of the world.

Desire may glitter and appear powerful and magnetic

but desire is a dark relentless lord

that spawns vice and transgressions of every sort.

Desire may skate on the surface of life in ordinary ways

but desire keeps all ignorant in Illusion.

Desire may wear the garb of good works and great achievements

and advancement and even ascension

but desire keeps all trapped in Illusion.

Desirelessness is Freedom and Liberation from ignorance and illusion.

Those who are Free
live beyond the boundaries and limits of desire.

Desirelessness is release from the Creator mind

and is its Annihilation.

There is one ultimate and worthy desire

and that is the earnest desire for Freedom

as this is the one worthy desire that frees one

from all desire and ignorance and illusion.

The desire for Freedom

is a Gift and Blessing from Oneness Grace

that leads one swiftly to Realization and Liberation.

Desirelessness is the extinction of the ego mind and all illusion.

Desirelessness is the absolute Bliss of Freedom.

Why be tormented by desire?

Be desireless and Free

like

the perfume of a flower in the wind

like

a hawk soaring high in the sky!

Love in Duality

With the assumption

in

the duality and relativity of spacetime

even profound lovers

suffer some alienation

and

Attachment chains us to illusion and keeps us bound.

No matter what our actions or thoughts may be

when there is no attachment, we are fundamentally free.

Nonattachment is a detached position

and a detached position is aligned with Freedom and Liberation.

When there is no attachment or desire one automatically returns to one's Source, Oneness Reality.

Nonattachment is one of the purest states possible in Illusion

while Oneness Reality is transcendent

of both attachment and nonattachment.

One who neither accepts nor rejects anything

is neither attached nor detached and is transcendent Freedom.

Be nonattached like the fragrance of a flower or the light of the sun.

Be ever Free!

The mind creates and projects a zero.

The mind is an illusion and essentially nonexistent.

Other than as thought

the ego body mind world cosmos does not exist.

The Power of the One is the Almighty Creator of all illusion and the origin of the mind.

Illusion and the mind coexist and appear and disappear as one.

The Creator is real and unreal while the mind is ever unreal.

The mind exists yet does not exist like a mirage of water in a desert.

The Almighty Creator makes all illusion seem real and true and creates ignorance.

The illusory mind is the Veil of Illusion

and the illusory infinitude is the Shadow of the One.

The Creator mind Creates and Projects the illusory infinitude.

The mind and the infinitude

appear and disappear in Consciousness

and are an illusory superimposition and a zero and nothing.

The mind and the infinitude obscure and veil Oneness:

this is the Power of the Almighty Creator.

The infinitude is like a mirage and all experience is an illusion:

this is the Power of the Almighty Creator.

When absorbed and lost in the mind

we are the Veil of Illusion and live as the Shadow of the One.

For the Realized / Liberated

the Veil of Illusion is permanently dissolved

but the Shadow remains until the death of the body.

Everything that happens is alone by the One Power and Will of the Creator including the mastery of the mind.

The mind is an abstract mental construct created by thought that represents all cognitive processes.

All cognitive faculties and processes are referred to as mind.

The mind is a bundle of thoughts.

The mind is the complex of elements in an individual

that perceives thinks feels determines remembers and reasons.

The brain is an organ of the body, but the mind is not.

The brain serves as the center of the nervous system
and the coordination between the mind and body and environment.

The mind is a complex of cognitive processes that take place in the brain
thus, it can be said that the mind resides in the brain.

The brain and mind as concepts differ and overlap
but essentially the brain and mind are coordinate and coexistent as one.

Without the brain there is no mind and without the mind there is no brain.

The brain is where the electronic impulses that create thought
are contained and where the coordination in life
as a living entity takes place.

The mind is the I-thought and perception as experience
and ideation feeling reason memory determination and so on.

Consciousness is the Source Substratum Substance
of the mind brain body and environment.

Consciousness is the continuum
in which the mind brain and environment appear and disappear.

The mind and body are coordinate and coexistent as one but the body is in the mind and the mind is in Consciousness.

The mind rules via the five bodily senses and the sixth sense that is the mind endlessly extended in all directions.
The five senses of the body are the vehicle for perception
as is the sixth sense that is the cognitive part of the brain.
The eyes see, ears hear, nose smells, tongue tastes, skin feels
and the brain perceives thought and all that comprises the mind
while Consciousness, the One Witness Seer, Sees and Knows All.

The mind is the power of reason and imagination.
Reason and imagination working in tandem create and produce the greatest achievements and advances
in all the fields of human endeavor.
It is the balance of reason and imagination
that is the most powerful human dynamic in life.

The mind is ever changing cognition as perception experience and memory.

The mind is a stream of thoughts and feelings and mental images.

Cognition is:

all mental processes; a result of the cognitive process;

the process of knowing.

A thought is:

a form created in the mind rather than the forms perceived through the five senses; an instance of cognition or thinking; an idea.

A feeling is:

an impression; a reaction; an emotion; an intuition;

an unreasoned belief; recognition; an instinctual sense.

An image is:

a mental picture; an impression of something;

a reproduction of something.

Perception is instant and prior to thought

until thought takes hold as experience.

Thought and perception and experience

are based on dual subject-object relativity that is subjective and an illusion.

External sense perception and experience

such as a bird and its song or the sensation of silk to the touch of the hand

is in the mind and conceptual.

Internal perception and experience

such as thinking or an imagined journey or a memory of a journey taken

is in the mind and conceptual.

All experience of external and internal phenomena is conceptual.

The mind and the brain and senses are finite

material mutable and vibratory

and an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Thought has form and is vibratory and mutable experience that is limited.

Thought is based on the subject-object dichotomy

and thus, dual experience that is relative and subjective.

Thought is objective yet a subjective experience.

Thought is an object directly perceived by the brain

and Witnessed by Consciousness.

Thought is a finite mutable vibratory object

while Consciousness is formless limitless immutable and nonvibratory.

Thought objectifies formless Consciousness

that is the One Witness Seer of all thoughts and all objects.

Thought can never experience Consciousness

and Consciousness never experiences thought:

this is the one and only commonality that thought and Consciousness share.

Thought is projected onto the Screen of Consciousness.

Thought is an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Feeling and emotion have more force and depth than thought.

Feeling and emotion coupled with the intellect is powerful.

Feeling is a finer subtler mental mode than both emotion and thought and is often on a higher level.

Feeling is not emotion although it may be intermixed with it.

Feeling is more aligned with compassion and love than emotion

while emotion is more robust forceful and motivational.

Emotion is often reaction that is negative and aligned with desire and fear and their offshoots, such as anger greed jealousy and so on.

There are endless shades of feeling.

Feeling is the mental mode most aligned with Oneness Truth and is the last to dissolve before the Annihilation of the mind

that is Liberation from all ignorance and illusion.

Ideation springs from the intellect

and is based on reason and understanding.

The intellect is the cognitive faculty of reason

and comprehension and knowing

and the capacity for rational and intelligent thought.

Thought is powerful.

Thought creates and projects eons and endless universes

in endless spacetime.

Thought creates and projects the ego-I and all illusion.

Thought veils the One

like a cloud that covers the bright disc of the sun.

Thought immerses one in the dark depths of misery

and lifts one to the heights.

Thought seems to divide the One indivisible but this an illusion.

Thought weaves the web of illusion.

Thought is time in a conceived space.

Thought is based on memory—the past.

Thought comes from the illusory past and looks to the illusive future.

Thought is as ephemeral as a snowflake on the palm of a hand.

Thought has ego and form and name.

Thought creates masks and boundaries.

Thought creates and determines experience and the world.

As we think so we become.

The world mirrors what we think and feel.

Positive thinking creates positive experience
and negative thinking creates negative experience.

What we accept or reject
determines the quality and tenor of our experience.

Thought is a force for good or bad.

Thought appears and disappears in Consciousness.

Thought has form while Consciousness is formless.

Thought vibrates while Consciousness is nonvibratory.

Thought is finite while Consciousness is Infinite.

Thought is Illusion while Consciousness is Reality.

The mind is the ultimate miracle and magic show.

The mind is a vast world of illusion created and projected by thought.

The mind is a dreamer dreaming a dream, spinning a tale
weaving the web of illusion.

The mind is a stream of thought and ever-changing.

The mind is endlessly spacious like space.

The mind facing in all directions is everywhere and everything.

The mind is desire—the mind without desire is no mind.

The mind is the world and the world the mind.

The mind has modes and levels and planes and dimensions
and countless states and moods.

The mind is in continuous motion
as impressions inclinations reactions and associative cognition.

The mind is the creator sustainer and destroyer
of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

The mind has unrivaled power of creation and destruction.

The mind creates and projects God above and other.

The mind creates and projects Satan.

The mind creates and projects

endless variation as countless forms qualities experiences and so on.

The mind creates and projects

countless opposites and endless shades of relativity.

The mind is a demon of differentiation and division

that creates the illusion of separation.

The mind objectifies analyses labels and organizes.

The mind is either inclined toward order or chaos.

The mind is individual and personal

though based on universal impersonal cognitive dynamics.

The mind is a mere illusory appearance

and a superimposition on Consciousness.

The mind in motion is illusion

and when motionless absolute Consciousness.

The mind turned outward is the ego body world cosmos

and turned inward absolute Consciousness.

The mind is a zero and creates endless zeros in Oneness Consciousness.

All live in the world according to preconceived ideas and beliefs.

All live in their own individual world and reality

all live in their own sphere

encapsulated in a bubble of illusion.

There are three primary mental modes in Consciousness:

simple awareness of thoughts and perceptions;

being engaged with but unattached to thoughts and perceptions;

being identified with thoughts and perceptions.

All mental modes are imaginary states of the mind

and an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Instinct intellect inspiration intuition insight and illumination

are modes of the mind in an ascending order of fineness

that spring from the I-thought.

Insight is finer than intuition and intuition is finer than inspiration

but illumination surpasses insight as it is a perpetual state of divine feeling and the highest and most refined mental state possible.

Both insight and illumination alone exist in the pure / enlightened mind.

Instinct is the densest mental mode

while the intellect brings one into the rational sphere of logic and reasoning

that is fundamental to civilization and science

but it is inspiration that enlivens and elevates the intellect.

From inspiration in an ascending order

follow intuition and insight and illumination

that lead to transcendent Realization beyond the mind.

Realization is not a mental mode or state and is transcendent of the mind

as Reality Experience / Self Knowledge.

Realization is the Annihilation of the mind

and all imagination ignorance and illusion.

The fulfillment of the mind's destiny is in its Annihilation.

The aim and culmination of Creation

is the Annihilation of the mind and all illusion

and the Realization of Reality—the One Self.

It is the human being who turns within to the One Light of Consciousness.

This turning within is the spiritual path and journey

that is the gradual dissolution of the ego mind

in an ascending order of finer purer mental grades and levels

leading to the Annihilation of the ego mind

and the unveiling of the One Reality and Self.

The Annihilation of the ego mind is Waking from the Dream of Illusion

and Liberation from all ignorance and illusion.

Annihilation of the mind is preordained.

The Annihilation of the mind destroys the Veil of Illusion.

The mind like a bubble in the boundless Ocean of Consciousness

is pierced by Oneness Grace and instantaneously vanishes.

The Creator mind and all illusion vanish with the Annihilation of the mind

but Consciousness ever Is.

There is no Liberation from ignorance and illusion

without Realization of one's Real Identity.

There is no real fulfillment and completion

without Realization of one's Eternal Nature.

There is no Realization and Liberation

without the Grace of the One.

The Annihilation of the mind is Liberation

that is transcendent Realization alone bestowed by Oneness Grace.

Liberation is to be esteemed above all else

for in the dissolution of the mind

the One Self Shines in absolute Fullness and Freedom.

It alone is Oneness Grace that Awakens and Liberates all

from ignorance and illusion.

Our preordained destiny is final surrender to our primal nonexistence

by the Grace of the One.

It's all a dream until the Annihilation of the mind.

Insight aligned with Oneness Truth

is pure / enlightened mental experience.

Insight is divine thought.

Insight is aligned with wisdom.

Insight penetrates and clearly sees and precisely knows in an instant.

Insight suddenly appears like a light turned on in the dark.

Insight is a clear certain knowing via pure subtle thought.

Insight can see into anything and everything.

Insight confirms the truths we have faith in.

Insight is essential for spiritual clarity that is dynamic.

51

The ego veils the One Self.

The ego is the I-thought.

The ego is the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One.

The ego has a beginning and an end in Illusion.

The ego is the finite false I that veils the One Self that is the Infinite Real I.

The ego must go for the One Self to fully Shine, unveiled.

The ego is ignorance in illusion and a zero and nothing.

The ego is the original primal lie from which all other lies spring.

The ego is mere fiction.

The ego is the knot that ties the body to the mind.

The ego rules the world via the five bodily senses
and the sixth sense that is the mind extended endlessly in all directions.

The ego and mind are one and the same.

The ego created by thought is an abstract mental construct.

The ego is a mental abstraction and a protracted contraction.

The ego is a powerful creation and projection of the mind

that is sustained by memory.

The ego is a dynamic thought-form, like a ghostly existence.

The ego is the underlying force of thought.

All thought has ego.

The ego is a false identity

that springs from erroneous assumption and belief.

The pretentious portentous ego is an assumption and presumption.

The ego is invasive and inclined to leave its imprint on everything

thus, tainting all that it touches.

The ego is predisposed to take over everything.

The ego has unrivaled power of creation and destruction as thought.

The ego is based on the past memory

and looks to the elusive future ever shunning the Here and Now.

The ghostly ego lives in the graveyard of the past
and plans for and fantasizes about the future.

The ego is a mental construct that seemingly has a life of its own.

The primary I-thought is the original and root thought

from which all other thoughts spring.

This dominant I-thought is the ego and driven by the ego.

When the ego I-thought ceases, all thought ceases along with it as well as the body mind world cosmos.

With the dissolution of the I-thought the ego vanishes

and along with it all and everything that seems to be or exist.

Seek the source of the I-thought and it vanishes
in its Source—Consciousness.

The ego is cultivated and magnified by thought

thus, thought can never eliminate the ego that is the I-thought.

The ego is the false I that is the I-me-mine and I-you-it.

The ego I-me-mine is a fixation.

The ego is based on identification with the body.

The ego is I am the body identification that springs from ignorance and creates and sustains the illusion of separation.

Identification with a form or body is universal.

The ego that has no form takes the body as its own and flourishes thereby.

The ego is imaginary and a mere formulation that subsists on form.

The ego is active in the world for the sake of the body.

The ego as body identity keeps all bound by desire and fear.

The ego as body identity is conditioned and limited.

The ego is the driving force of the body and the axis of the mind and all ignorance.

The ego as intention drives the body

and creates life and living in the world.

Drop the ego and the world vanishes.

The ego is the primary agent of all experience.

The ego is the doer enjoyer and owner.

The ego is the game of life.

The ego idolizes itself.

The ego has a story and history and is engrossed in and defined by it.

The ego seeks name and fame.

The ego is deeply attached to identity self-image and self-esteem.

The ego defines itself as inferior or superior or equal to others.

The ego is the superior authoritarian.

The ego is the critic and judge and assumes itself as righteous.

The ego may be good or bad or both

and is ever tainted by differentiation.

The ego is a slave of desire and a captive of fear.

The ego is its own fortress in the world.

The ego is the controller and dictator.

The ego is the conqueror and victor.

The ego seeks survival security and conquest.

The ego creates boundaries and walls

to wage its perpetual battle of offense and defense.

The ego adopts attitudes personas and roles

such as leader martyr hero rebel victim peacemaker and so on.

The ego is devoted to self-improvement

and given over to self-help programs.

The ego is ever the rationalizer.

The ego is the ultimate lie and liar.

The ego is Satan.

The ego is the root of all vice misery and suffering.

The ego keeps the world of illusion spinning.

The aim and goal of the ego is final victory.

The ego resists egoless Presence.

The ego ever hungry for justification and victory

resists the egoless thought-free Now.

Upon reaching a point of insight by the Grace of the One

belief and faith in the ego-I falters

and we turn from the darkness of ignorance to the Light of the One Self.

When ignorance is recognized for what it is when the illusion of the ego is discerned

when the ego is clearly seen as an imposter

our Real Identity as absolute Consciousness—the One Reality and Self is Realized.

Unlike the ego the Immortal One Self has no story or history and is the Unborn and Uncreated that is transcendent Oneness Reality.

The transcendent One Self is purposeless Perfection

while the ego has purpose motive intention and aim

with final victory as its goal

but victory is never final as life offers only change and limits.

Insight into the nature of the ego can solve all puzzles

unravel all tangles and unburden unbind and free one.

When the ego is ignored it dwindles and dies.

It is imperative not to believe in or bow to the ego.

Life and living in alignment with Oneness Truth Frees us from the ego

and all ignorance and illusion.

Be at the One Source—Consciousness—and the ego dissolves in It.

Go to the Source of the ego—Consciousness—to find it nonexistent.

Introvert the mind and it dissolves in its source—Consciousness.

Consciousness, the One Self and Reality, is egoless

and transcendent of the mind.

Mere Being is the egoless stateless State of Oneness.

The ultimate and preordained destiny of the ego is final surrender to its primal nonexistence by way of Grace that is the Power of the One.

When we realize that we have no real power or volition

and that all is in the Perfect Hands of the One Power

we surrender to/as Oneness

and our dissolution is the unveiling of the One Self ever Here in the Eternal Now of Oneness Perfection.

The Key

The ego is a prison cell

to which we have the Key to unlock the Self

and

Be ever Free!

A Norm

Crystalized and fused with the past

in bias on a tangent

a conditioned existence cramped

in a bubble of miasma

a norm.

The body is the Shadow of the One.

The body is inert and never says I AM.

The body cannot exist apart from Consciousness, the One Self.

The body is assumed as our primary identity along with the ego mind.

The body has form and is matter / energy that is temporal and limited.

The body is the instrument for functioning in the world.

The body is born changes and dies.

The body is a finite organism

and like all organic matter deteriorates and dies.

The human body is crowned with the brain coexistent with the mind.

The brain is the center of the nervous system

where the electronic impulses that create thought are contained

and the body mind and environment are coordinated and from where the Spirit of life and living fundamentally spring.

The human is the Crown of Creation

and it is from the brain / mind that the Creation springs and is projected.

The heart is the center and force of life in the body;

the lungs breathing universal air in and out of the body

are the breath of life and coordinate with the mind

that is the sixth sense extending endlessly in all directions, like the wind;

and the belly of fire is the body's demand for the intake of water and the fruits of the earth, as food is life.

With a loss of blood there is potential loss of life

and with a lack of air there is potential loss of life and with a lack of water and nutriment there is potential loss of life

as the Spirit of Life resides in the heart and lungs and belly coordinated and controlled by the brain / mind.

The five senses of the body are the vehicle for perception

as is the sixth sense that is the cognitive part of the brain.

The eyes see, ears hear, nose smells, tongue tastes, skin feels

and the brain perceives thought and all that comprises the mind.

All perception—sensory and cognitive—is taken hold of

by thought as experience.

A physical sensory activation of a sensory organ
and its nerve impulse signaling information to the brain
that is processed as image sound smell taste or touch
becomes perception that is mental experience.
It is vibrations chemicals and molecules
that activate the five sensory organs.

The body is composed of the five essential elements

earth water fire air ether

that form the five sensory organs and their respective sensations.

The body is a reflection of the cosmos

and made of stars and oceans and so on.

The body and cosmos are coexistent and interconnected intermixed as one.

The ego body mind world cosmos appears and disappears as one
in the continuum of Consciousness
and is an illusory superimposition and a zero and nothing.

The body does not exist apart from the world and cosmos

and the body world cosmos does not exist apart from the ego mind

which does not exist apart from Consciousness.

There is nothing apart from Consciousness

as Consciousness is the One Source Substratum Substance

of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Consciousness alone ever Is.

Life and living are based on:

obtaining water and food and preparing and consuming it;

the protection and maintenance of the body and family;

mating and caring for offspring and family.

Humans are biologically programmed to survive

thus, security is an issue for most due to the inherited drive

for both physical and psychological survival.

Nature is a food chain that is the energy source for all species of life:

forms consume other forms for energy sustenance and life.

The food chain exists in the gross material sphere
although there is subtle energy consumption and transformation
on all levels of cosmic existence.

Killing/destroying for consumption to sustain life
is the fundamental basis of sentient life.
It is impossible to be truly nonviolent as merely breathing destroys life.

Life is creation and preservation and destruction.

All humans are uniquely genetically programmed and individual.

Everyone has a thumbprint that is uniquely individual and unlike any other.
Everybody is individual and singular
and a reflection of the endless diversity and variation of the infinitude.
There is no one exactly the same as another.

Genes/DNA change over time—everything changes on all levels in all ways.

Body-identity is mortality and ignorance in illusion.

If the body is assumed as the self and real
the world and cosmos are external separate and real.

We are not the body nor is the body ours nor are we the doer or enjoyer
we are the Unborn Self that is the One Witness Seer
of everything and all that seems to be or exist.

Attachment to the body and sense objects is the basis of life for most

and the source of pleasure and pain.

Self-image based on the body is idolatry.

The widely prevalent cultivation of self-image is based on the desire for attention acceptance security and esteem.

The world idolizes the body and creates idols of all sorts ever enmeshed in idolatry and superstition.

Idolatry and superstition are ingrained and embedded in culture and society
thus, we live conditioned in a conditioned world.

The body is finite limited and mortal and can never experience

the formless limitless Immortal Self—Consciousness.

The body is made evident possible and sentient by Consciousness.

The body appears and disappears in Consciousness.

The body is an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

The existence or nonexistence of form

makes no difference to the formless One Self, absolute Consciousness.

Consciousness is the One Self and Reality

while the body and all forms are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Humans have three illusory bodies.

Each individual is one living unit with three coexistent bodies / forms that perform their respective functions in coordination and harmony with each other.

We have three bodies:

the gross / material / physical body

the subtle / energy / etheric body

the mental / desire / causal body.

These three bodies are coexistent coordinate interconnected and appear and disappear as one.

All three are the Veil of Illusion and the Shadow of the One and a zero and nothing.

All three are an illusory superimposition on Oneness Consciousness and pervaded by Consciousness.

The gross body is the densest veil

and the subtle body is a finer veil

and the mental body is the finest veil.

The One Light of Consciousness Shines

through the gross veil the least

and the subtle veil more

and the mental veil the most

to the point that some who are on a pure / enlightened mental plane

think or feel they are Realized

but in actuality are still connected with the I-thought and mental body.

Only when the mind is Annihilated does the Veil of Illusion vanish and Oneness Consciousness Shine, unveiled.

All humans are full but veiled Consciousness.

All have a gross body and a subtle body and a mental body.

Most identify primarily with the gross body and the mind

and some do not identify with the gross body

but with the subtle body and the mind

and a few identify only with the mental body

that is the pure / enlightened mind.

And a rare one does not identify with a body or the mind

but with the formless One Self

absolute Consciousness.

The three bodies have their respective three worlds

in ascending planes of experience that are a mind creation

projected onto the Screen of Consciousness.

Everything is the Creator mind—all is the Creator's Dream.

Identification with the gross body and gross world is dense experience

identification with the subtle body and subtle world is subtle experience

and identification with the mental body and mental world

is divine experience.

Oneness Consciousness alone is Absolute Experience

as Self Knowledge that is Reality Experience

transcendent of the three bodies and their worlds.

The gross body is inert and dense.

The gross body is a reflection of the cosmos

and made of the five essential elements

earth water fire air ether

and the stars and oceans and so on.

The gross / physical body is a splendid structure mechanism and tool for the human creative spirit and its deep and profound urge to know and experience.

The gross body's brain and nervous system is a medium

for Self Realization / Reality Experience.

Neuroscientists have found that the brain becomes hyper-connected that regions of the brain that normally have little to do with each other become linked in heightened pure states of mind
akin to Oneness Experience.

Scientists do not know what Consciousness is or where it comes from
and they never will because Consciousness is formless
nonmaterial and nonvibratory
and not an object that can be observed and measured.

The gross body is made of matter and is inert dense limited and temporal.

The body is born changes deteriorates and dies

and is the medium for sensory experience

and the vehicle for life and living.

Most identify their existence and sense of self with the gross body that is uniquely individual.

There is no thumbprint in existence that is exactly the same as another.
Everybody is individual and unique and a reflection
of the infinitude that is endless variation.

The body is dependent on air and water and nutriments

and protection from the elements for its survival.

The primary focus of those who identify with the gross body

is on the protection and maintenance of the body

and sex and reproduction.

The body is biologically and genetically programmed.

The body is confined and limited by its natural properties.

The body appears lingers awhile and then disappears
but the One Self ever Is.

The body mind world cosmos is interconnected as one.

The brain body world cosmos is in the mind

and the mind is in Consciousness.

The body is not evident or possible without Consciousness

nor is it apart from Consciousness.

Experience of the gross world is dense.

The gross body and world are based on dual subject-object relativity

and are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The astral body is the link between the gross and subtle bodies.

Only those identified with the gross body and world

experience the astral body and world.

The astral sphere is like an imprint of the subtle

over the gross but neither gross or subtle.

Our dreams are astral based

and some experience the astral body and world and astral-project.

Those who experience the near death of the gross body

enter the astral world for a brief time.

Heaven and hell are experienced in the astral world

and are only temporary experiences.

The astral body and world are based on dual subject-object relativity

and are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The subtle body is the link between the gross and mental bodies.

The subtle body is finer and less limited than the gross body.

The subtle / etheric body is an energetic form

that is the manifestation of mental impressions inclinations and desires

thus, also called the desire body.

The subtle body is a vital force and powerful energy

that imbues the gross body with the force of life.

The subtle body is connected with the gross nervous system

and brain / mind and has three main energy channels

running along both sides of the spine and along the spine itself

on up into the brain to the top of the head

through which vital force / subtle energy flows.

There are seven concentrated points along the central channels called chakras.

It is in this chakra channel that the subtle kundalini energy runs.

The term kundalini stems from yogic philosophy
and is defined as an indwelling shakti power/energy
that can be awakened to purify the body mind
and ultimately conclude in Union with the One Absolute.

Kundalini energy is described as dormant potential power coiled at the base of the spine, like a sleeping serpent and its awakening as an ascending movement along the central channel up to the Crown chakra located at the top of the head
to permanently reside there.

There is a total of 108 chakras throughout the entire subtle body.

Various yoga systems practice meditation mantra breathing
and posture exercises to awaken kundalini energy.

There are ascending planes of experience in the subtle world.

The subtle body has five internal subtle senses

that correspond with the five external senses of the gross body that far surpass gross sensory experience in brilliance and beauty.

Subtle experience is magnified and immensely blissful and powerful.

Those identified with the subtle body and stationed in the subtle world

have a vast command of energy / power

and some perform supernatural acts and miracles

and some bring others to their level.

All are disassociated from the gross body and world

but still associated with the ego I-thought and the mind and desire

so, must beware of misusing their tremendous power.

Experience in the subtle world is supernatural.

Identification with the subtle body and world is a turning within

to the limitless One Light of Consciousness

and is the beginning of the dissolution of the ego mind.

The subtle body and world are based on dual subject-object relativity

and are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The mental body is the seat of the mind.

The mental body is also called the causal or desire body

because it stores the seeds—causes—of all desires.

The mental body is the storehouse / reservoir

of all latent impressions and inclinations and desires

that determine the overall state and quality of the mind

that is continuously being directed and modified by them

all the while accruing new impressions.

This dynamic creates repetitive action and reaction

that automatically keeps the Wheel of Karma revolving.

Impressions are imprints akin to genes.

The manifestation of impressions inclinations and desires takes place in the subtle body and is expressed

via the gross body and the brain.

If there are no impressions, there is no ego body mind world cosmos

and That which Alone ever Is Shines.

Impressions determine the qualities of the ego body mind

and life experience as a whole

and they determine which body we associate and identify with gross or subtle or mental.

Those identified with the mental body and world

are dissociated from both the gross and subtle bodies and worlds.

They experience the high mental level of the pure / enlightened mind and the inner planes of the mental world.

These are the enlightened and illumined ones

who have full mastery of and command of the mind and the heart.

Their mind and heart are pure and in alignment with Oneness Truth

and although they have complete control of desire

they are not desireless as the One.

Their I-thought is minimal and actions essentially selfless and their mind and heart divine.

The mental world is one of mastery and is the zenith of divine experience.

They behold Oneness everywhere yet still identified with the mind

do not experience the One Absolute as their Real Identity.

They are able to read the minds and hearts of others

and some bring others to their high level.

The mental body and world are based on dual subject-object relativity

and are an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The One Self is formless and Free.

So long as there is misidentification with a body and the mind

ignorance in illusion will prevail and obstruct Realization of our Real Identity as the formless transcendent One Self and Reality

that is absolute Freedom.

Only when the mind is Annihilated is there Liberation

from all ignorance and illusion.

It alone is Oneness Grace that Awakens and Liberates

all from ignorance and illusion.

The Eternal One Infinite

our Immortal One Self

ever Is

in

the timeless Now of Oneness Perfection.

54

Waking and deep sleep and dreaming

are three revolving states we experience.

There also is a fourth stateless State that of the transcendent One Witness Seer, referred to as wakeful sleep.

The Witness Seer is the One Light of Awareness

Who Sees everything and all that seems to be or exist.

In deep sleep there is no I-me-mine or body mind world cosmos.

Deep sleep is the Emptiness of absolute Existence, but unaware.

Sleep comes when the body is tired and the mind weary or quiescent.

Sleep is key for rest healing rejuvenation and fleeting freedom.

In deep sleep one loses one's false identity

and returns unconsciously to the Bliss of the One Self.

All welcome and happily fall into the peace and freedom of deep sleep.

When mental impressions stir one to wake

to the conscious awake state that is life and living

as the I-me-mine in the world

the deep sleep and dreaming states dissolve

and thus, rest and activity alternate

in the revolving waking and deep sleep and dreaming states that appear and disappear in the One Light of the Witness Seer

the fourth stateless State.

The dream state involuntarily occurs at various intervals of sleep

when the subtle and mental bodies are active

and the gross body is unconscious.

In the dream state when the body is unconscious

there is no contact with the external world

but the ego mind is active in an obscure way.

Similarly, in the waking state the ego mind is active

but projected outward as the body world cosmos.

Dreaming is a dream within the Dream that is the waking state.

All is the Dream of the One Creator and an illusion and a zero and nothing.

It is mental impressions that project the three revolving states

waking and deep sleep and dreaming

onto the Screen of Consciousness

that is the One Witness Seer and fourth stateless State.

When dreaming we wander about in a dream-body
but when we wake from dreaming where is the dream-body?

Likewise, when we Wake from the Dream of life and living
where is the ego body mind world cosmos?

In deep sleep when the body is unconscious

and the ego mind absent and reduced to its causal state, nothing exists:

this is proof that one's relative existence

is an illusory creation and projection of the mind

that the ego body world cosmos alone exists in the mind

and is projected externally in the waking state.

In deep sleep there is no ego mind or world

and in the fourth stateless State of the Witness Seer

there is no ego mind or world:

this proves that the ego mind and its creations and projections

are all unreal and essentially nonexistent.

In deep sleep and the stateless State of the One Witness Seer

there is no ego body mind world cosmos.

All that has form and name is but a concept

and an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The waking and deep sleep and dreaming states

do not exist in Oneness Reality.

We Wake from the Dream

of the revolving waking and deep sleep and dreaming states

to Oneness Reality by the Grace of the One.

Deep Sleep

The absolute grandeur of sleep

an obsidian palace

black seamless vast smooth

a nothingness I fall into unaware

and

rise from reluctant

with the sudden departure of freedom and ease wondering

if

I had been sweetly kissed in secret

by

Bliss Itself.

Death is the Great Dissolution that is but an illusion.

Death is the ultimate golden opportunity

as in death all return to their Source

the One Absolute.

All that emerges from the One Source returns

like all rivers run to the sea

all rivers flow to their ultimate destination, the ocean.

All are born into Illusion and die to illusion upon death.

Death is a radical surrender to the Unknown

that is Liberation from the known.

That which is known is transient and illusory

while the One Unknown is the transcendent One Reality and Self

ever Here in the Eternal Now.

Death is the great leveler—death is the great equalizer.

All lose all that they possess in death.

Dust to dust, ashes to ashes, is the final image and message of death.

Death entails the absolute release of the body

and the dissolution of the persona

and is the ultimate golden opportunity for certain instant Liberation

from the Creator mind and all ignorance and illusion.

The mortal false I perishes to arise from the ashes as the Immortal Phoenix

that is the Real and Shining One I unveiled.

Upon death all Wake from the Dream of mortality to the Immortal One Self

the Unborn and Uncreated

all are Liberated from all ignorance and illusion by Oneness Grace.

All, no matter what condition or state of mind at death

Wake to/as the One Absolute by way of Oneness Grace

all Realize the Immortal Self upon the death of the body

all are Liberated as transcendent Oneness Freedom!

If there is attachment at the instant of death

spontaneous purification dissolves all impressions and desires in an instant

just as water in a mirage in the desert vanishes upon close inspection.

Death and the dissolution of Illusion is to be celebrated!

Birth and life and death are the illusory Dream of the Creator.

It is Oneness Grace that Awakens and Liberates all at death

from all ignorance and illusion.

All are Liberated from Illusion upon death yet mourn death in ignorance.

Death is a delusion that comes from identifying the I with the mortal body

the ego takes transient flesh as I and veils the Immortal One Self.

Death and birth and life pertain only to the body and not to the Self.

The false identity as the ego body mind dies with the death of the body.

Some intuit or Know their immortality

and never feel the shadow of death in their lives

but those who identify with and are attached to the mortal body

feel the shadow of death and fear it for death is their demise.

Dying may involve physical pain

but this pain and suffering is an opportunity for detachment and disassociation from the body and persona during the death process.

Throughout life we experience mini deaths of all sorts.

A spiritual practice for some is to practice death in life

that entails a loss of ego or a shift that is a turning to the One Light

or the Annihilation of the ego mind that is Liberation.

Some do not fear death because of faith

or the conviction that heaven awaits them upon death.

Faith or conviction in heaven is aligned with Oneness Truth

that is the Heaven of Oneness Perfection.

But the heaven that is the opposite of hell

is a mind creation and projection that is ignorance in Illusion.

Those who identify with Spirit welcome death

as ascension or transcendence or Annihilation in/as the One Absolute.

Those who believe in reincarnation do not ponder death or fear it as another body and life await them in their future.

Reincarnation / transmigration is the belief in the false ego I

as a prolonged extension in spacetime as rebirth in a body.

The ego identified with and attached to the body

deeply passionately desires personal victory

victory over death and its enemies

and victory in another life via reincarnation.

In the one interconnected intermixed totality that is the infinitude

there exists an endlessly vast immensely complex universal collective memory

of all lives over endless spacetime

and there are those who knowingly or unknowingly

tap into this vast collective memory

and accrue mental impressions that come to life

in a dynamic energetic way

so that the individual assumes and imagines that this experience

is a personal past or future life

and from the standpoint that we are all the one totality, this is correct

but to claim it as mine is incorrect.

There is no individual personal reincarnation as such

but there is one incarnation as one individual facet

of the one totality that is mine.

We are either all or none of the one totality that is the infinitude

everything or nothing

but essentially both these stances spring from ignorance.

The Eternal One Infinite Alone Exists

while the infinitude is Its Shadow and a zero and nothing.

Everything is an imaginary and illusory creation and projection

of the ego mind

including the belief in individual personal reincarnation

and like all other beliefs and assumptions

to be relegated to ignorance in Illusion.

There is no birth or rebirth, nor is there death

all beginnings and endings are an illusion and nonexistent.

Embodiment individuality and personhood are an illusion

that appear and disappear in Oneness Consciousness.

Birth is the illusory emergence from the One Source and death the return.

Birth change and death are illusory superimpositions
on Oneness Consciousness—the One Reality and Self.

All are essentially innocent and blameless in ignorance.

All Wake from the Creator's Dream

all are Liberated by Oneness Grace

having had no real power volition choice or option in life.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist is predetermined
and moved by the One Power and Will—the Almighty Creator.

Everything is an illusion in the Grand Illusion

everything is an illusory appearance that dissolves

into the zero and nothing that it is.

Death is an illusion as are birth and life

all live in a web of illusion until death's Great Dissolution

that too is but an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The Immortal One Self—Unborn and Uncreated—Alone Exists!

Religions and spiritual movements are vehicles to Truth.

Religion is defined as:

an organized system of beliefs precepts rules ceremonies and rituals used to venerate and worship God or a god or a Perfect personage;

a belief faith interest or activity of paramount importance to an individual or a group.

A religion may have a following of one or billions.

A religion or spiritual movement is an organized response to an Avatar or a Realized Master or spiritual Adept.

It is physical manifestations of Oneness Grace

that are the heart of religions and spiritual movements

yet all are in the realm of Illusion.

A spiritual movement often originates from a religion
like Sufism springs from Islam and is the heart of Islam.

Spiritual comes from the word Spirit.

Spirit is the Power and Manifestation of the One.

Faith and devotion to Truth and Love exemplified by the Perfect personage or spiritual Adept is demonstrated by way of praise observance service and so on.

Religions and spiritual movements are organizations

with a tier or hierarchy of authority and power

created in veneration and devotion

to a revered Perfect personage or spiritual Adept.

All religions and spiritual movements

are potential vehicles and pathways to Oneness Truth sustained by Oneness Grace for those who seek or love Truth.

Spirituality is the essence and heart

the inner dimension and Spirit of a religion

that is its outer form and expression.

Only when spirituality is strong

does religion have depth and genuine meaning

in alignment with Oneness Truth and Perfection.

Religion without spirituality is mechanical and empty.

Religion without the living waters of Spirit—spirituality—is like a dry husk

and becomes a struggle that is dominated by the egocentric mind

while spirituality is the Way of the Heart

that alone transcends the ego mind and all ignorance and illusion.

Without strong spirituality one is absorbed by and lost in the illusory world of the ego mind and thus conflicted confused and without conscience.

Spirituality does not need a religion

while religion needs spirituality to flourish.

The heart of every religion is mystical and transcendental

but few go to the heart of their religion.

The heart of a religion is sacred and a gift from Oneness Grace.

All religious organizations and spiritual movements

are influenced by the times in which they originate

and throughout the changing times and are thereby flawed

but the Power of Oneness Grace and Truth is the Light of a religion or spiritual movement and inestimable.

From time to time a spiritual Being will purify or rejuvenate

a religion or spiritual movement

but since all organized religions and spiritual movements are from the start in the sphere of time and the ego mind, this is never enduring.

No Perfect personage has ever transformed the world

or attempted to do so.

The world is ever changing on the surface
and deeply entrenched in its worldliness.

There is always an incline that eventually declines
and a dark age that follows a golden age.

The world and cosmos are ever spinning spiraling
circles and cycles in Illusion.

A Perfect personage is a Manifestation of Oneness Grace and Truth

Who lives for those who love and long for Oneness Truth and Freedom

Who lives for His Circle who live for Him

Who lives to give an overall push to humanity toward Oneness Truth.

The language precepts and context of religions

sometimes originating far in the past

can easily be misinterpreted and misunderstood

as the subtle meaning of words changes with time

and translators and scholars are fallible and flawed.

But it is from the Heart that one must listen

to any sacred scripture or exposition of truth.

A life based on words is divided, while Oneness Truth Alone is in Silence.

Some of the precepts of religions are universal
and have kept the world somewhat in-line.

Because of the differing cultural context of each religion

there is no religion that is universal

but there are those who embrace Oneness Truth in all religions knowing the simple Truth of Oneness and Love to alone be universal.

Oneness Truth transcendent of the ego mind and world alone is universal.

Many are drawn or resort to religion for succor faith or salvation and some are simply drawn to the truth and peace and beauty that a religion offers.

Most are born into a religion
and from an early age are conditioned to believe that they are Christian Buddhist Muslim and so on thus, their religion usually is their life-long identity and faith.

Hypocrisy is rampant everywhere especially in religion
and there is current and past religious persecution and condemnation and punishment and execution.

Religion often is closely connected and even entwined
with politics power and money.

Some religions have been heavily touched by worldliness and cruelty
thus, many turn away from religion and false dogma.

There is the single-minded belief that a specific religion alone is true and must be spread for the good of all in the world.

It is the assumption of superiority along with the urge to control that flies banners and drives opposition missions and terrorism
that in turn attracts resentment and retribution
all action and reaction in the sphere of the imperious ego.

There are religious organizations and individuals with a mission and there are those who simply disseminate a religious or spiritual message for the good of seekers and the faithful.

The difference between dogma and truth and Oneness Truth
must be noted.

All religions and spiritual movements are the potential ground of Grace

that is the Power and Manifestation of the One.

Religions and spiritual movements are the principle most powerful dynamic that drives and elevates humanity.

There are as many pathways to Oneness Truth as there are beings

each path or way uniquely suited to each.

Oneness Truth alone is universal and not the property of any specific entity.

Oneness Truth belongs to no specific religion nation race gender and so on.

Oneness Truth is transcendent of all religions and spiritual movements.

Oneness Truth is beyond the reach of the senses and ego mind.

Oneness Truth is direct Experience in absolute Silence.

All religions and spiritual movements vanish

in the Silence of Oneness Truth.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist

vanishes in the absolute Silence

of

Oneness Perfection.

The Eternal One Infinite ever Is

Here in the Eternal Now of Oneness Perfection.

The Creator is the Power and Manifestation of the One.

The One Power is the Creator of the Grand Illusion.

The One Power is the Almighty Creator of all illusion
and the principle of ignorance
that makes illusion and the false seem real and true.

The Creation is a Dream that is the Play of ignorance in Illusion.

The Almighty is the Creator of the infinitude that is the cosmos
and everything and all that seems to be or exist.

The One Creator creates a zero.
Everything is an illusion and nonexistent.

The Creator is the Cosmic Intelligence in charge of the infinitude.
Not a leaf or hand or cloud or particle or thought happens and moves without the One Power and Will of the Creator.
Whatever infinitesimal iota or intake of air or beat of the heart or action or blink of an eye or attainment or loss or power
whatever comes to or proceeds from us
is the One Power and Will of the Creator.

There is no volition no real choice or option no individual personal power or will in existence—there is only the One Power and Will of the Creator.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist is predetermined
by the One Power and Will of the Creator.

The Creator's Play Toys are everything and all that seems to be or exist.

The Creator is the Master Illusionist.

The Creator is the Ultimate Mystery.

The Creator is the illusive Magician conjuring tricks and illusions that seem real.

The Creator has all hypnotized and under Its Spell

all are spellbound and fixated in fascination.

The Creator is the origin of the mind and its projecting and veiling power.

The Creator and the mind are coordinate and conjunct as one.

When the Creator appears

the mind and everything and all that seems to be or exist also appears

and when the mind disappears

the Creator and everything and all that seems to be or exist vanishes along with it.

The Creator and the mind rise and fall as one.

The mind deludes the entire world and is the Veil of Illusion that obscures Reality.

The Creator's limitless Imagination as the illusory infinitude is but a dream.

The Creator's illusory infinitude is the Play of diversity in duality

as differentiation division and separation

in the form of opposites that define each other and are ever relative in dynamic coexistence.

Some of the major players are: reality-illusion infinite-finite subject-object knowledge-ignorance positive-negative attraction-repulsion good-bad right-wrong and so on.

The Creator brings into existence an endless multiplicity of forms and formulations that are but an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The Creator creates endless variations of relationship

within the expanding and contracting space of separation

ever fixated on beginnings and endings.

The Creator is ever spinning illusion

ever tracing circles and circles within circles

ever projecting spheres and spheres within spheres.

The Almighty is the Creator and Projector of the infinitude onto the limitless Screen of Consciousness.

The Almighty is the Creator and Projector

of all illusion delusion ignorance imagination and falsity.

The Creation is a monumental lusty thrust to Infinity

based on forms generating and consuming other forms.

The Creation is an explosion and prodigious display of endless variation.

The Creation is relentless change

as growth evolution involution transition alteration modification mutation conversion transformation metamorphosis ascension and so on.

The Creation is the Magic Show and Cosmic Joke of the Almighty Creator.

The Creation is the Dream of the Creator we are dreaming.

The Creation envisioned is a vision that renders one stunned

in absolute awe, yet falls short of the full import and magnitude of It.

The Creation is the Grand Illusion

that astounds and confounds yet is but a zero and nothing.

The Creation and mind vanish in the absolute Silence of the One Reality.

The mind dissolves in the transcendent Here and Now.

Illusion vanishes with the Annihilation of the ego mind.

The mind when searched for is found to be nonexistent.

In any existential search nothing is to be found but the limitless Silence of absolute Consciousness—the One Reality and Self.

Illusion is everything that changes.

Mutability is a trick of Illusion.

Illusion is unfathomable.

Illusion and the One Reality will ever be the ultimate Mystery.

The vast grandeur and intricate play of the Creation is beyond comprehension and imagination.

Our experience of the one totality that is the endless infinitude is infinitesimal.

All that we experience is an illusion

all that happens is an illusion

all that appears and disappears is an illusion.

To know something to know anything is to know illusion.

You and these words you are reading are illusory.

Everything and all that seems to be or exist

can be traced to the One Almighty Creator.

All men women children and creatures and heaven and hell

the world and sky and light and darkness the seeker and devotee

all Avatars all angels and demons all gods and goddesses

the cosmic forces stars and moons and planets galaxies and universes

all dimensions particles waves vibrations frequencies

all prayers and working hands and seeing eyes all the eons of time and God above and other all that is visible and invisible

all sound and impacts the body and beating heart and breathing entity

all inspiration and aspiration all action and inaction

all summits and declines all victories all hope and experience

all that happens all that seems to be or exist is but a dream

mere imagination an illusion and a zero and nothing.

Only for those with Reality Experience transcendent of the mind is it crystal clear what is illusion and false and what is real and true.

Only those who Know everything to be the work of Illusion

see yet do not see and hear yet do not hear

and are the Bliss of transcendent Freedom.

Only those who abide in the absolute Silence of Reality

are transcendent of the ego mind and all ignorance and illusion.

The One Power is the Almighty Creator of the Grand Illusion

the Master Illusionist and Trickster

while Grace Wakes all from the Dream to the One Reality.

The void is a mental space devoid of objects and time.

The void is an empty mental space that is the abstract form of formless zero and but an illusion.

The void is subtle minimal experience that vibrates

and thus, objective and relative.

The void is not the Emptiness of transcendent Oneness Perfection.

The void is an absence

while Presence is Emptiness and the Fullness of Oneness.

The void is akin to a vacuum devoid of matter

but in fact, there is no perfect vacuum or absolute void.

The void is akin to a blank mind or mental absence

but is not the still mind / no mind that is the absolute Silence of Presence

absolute Consciousness.

It is the mind that creates and projects phenomena and finds a void
when there are no objects of perception
yet the void too is a creation and projection of the mind and thus, relative and but an illusion and a zero and nothing.

The void floats in Consciousness

and is an illusory superimposition on Consciousness.

The void appears and disappears in Consciousness

and is an obscure reflection of the Emptiness of Oneness.

The world subsides in the void and the void dissolves in Consciousness.

Consciousness alone ever Is.

Consciousness is the One Witness Seer of the void.

Consciousness is Oneness

transcendent of the void and absence and space.

Consciousness makes experience and the void evident and possible.

The One Light of Consciousness Illumines all experience and the void.
